CAP. XVII.

An Act for carrying into effect the Treaty between Her Majesty and the Republic of New Granada for the Suppression of the Slave Trade. [9th May 1853.]

'WHEREAS on the Second Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one a Treaty was concluded and signed at Bogotá, between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Republic of New Granada for the Suppression of the Slave Trade, whereby it was agreed as follows:

'ARTICLE I.—The Introduction of Slaves into the Territory of New Granada having been prohibited by Law, all Traffic in Slaves in any and every Part of the World is hereby declared to be henceforward and for ever prohibited to Granadian Citizens, as it has long been by the Law of Great Britain for all British Subjects; and all Granadian Citizens who shall engage in the Slave Trade by Sea or by Land, or who shall make use of the Granadian Flag for the Transport of Slaves from any Place to any other Place, shall be treated and punished as Pirates, conformably to the Laws of New Granada.

'ARTICLE II.—In order more completely to accomplish the Object of the present Treaty, the Two High Contracting Parties agree to authorize some of the Ships of War of their Navies respectively to visit and search Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations which may be met with at Sea, within the Limits to be herein-after specified; and which, by the Direction of their Course, or upon other reasonable Grounds, shall afford Motives for suspecting that they are engaged in the Slave Trade; and likewise, under the Circumstances mentioned in this Treaty, to detain, carry away, or send away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial in the Manner herein-after agreed upon.

'ARTICLE III.—The Limits within which the Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations shall be subject to the Visit and Search mentioned in the preceding Article shall be the following:

'1st.—From the Thirty-fifth Degree of West Longitude, reckoned from the Meridian of London, to the Coast of Africa, and from the Fifteenth Degree of North Latitude to the Twentieth Degree of South Latitude.

'2d.—All round the Island of Madagascar, to the Extent of Thirty Leagues from that Island.

'3d.—All along the East Coast of Africa, from Latitude Ten Degrees North of the Equator to the Twenty-sixth Degree of South Latitude, and to the Extent of Thirty Leagues from that Coast.

'4th.—The same Distance all round from the Coasts of the Island of Cuba.

'5th.—The same Distance from the Coasts of the Island of Puerto Rico, and

'6th.—The same Distance from the Coasts of Brazil.

'It is, however, understood that a suspected Vessel descried and begun to be chased by the Cruizers, whilst within the said Space of Thirty Leagues, may be searched by them beyond those Limits if, without ever having lost Sight of her, they should succeed in coming up with her at a greater Distance from any of the above-mentioned Coasts.

'ARTICLE IV.—All Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations which shall be visited in virtue of this Treaty, and which shall be found either with Slaves on board or equipped for Slave Trade, shall be detained, and shall be sent or carried to One of the Ports under British Jurisdiction, if the Vessel detained should be British, or to One of the Ports of New Granada, if the Vessel detained should be Granadian, to be tried by the Courts which take cognizance of the Crime of Piracy, according to the Laws of the respective Countries.

'And

'And such Vessels, with the whole of their Cargoes, shall be subject to the Penalty of Confiscation for having been found engaged in the Slave Trade.

'ARTICLE V.—Every Merchant Vessel, British or Granadian, which shall be visited in virtue of the Provisions contained in the Articles II. and III. of the present Treaty may lawfully be detained, and be sent or brought before the proper Tribunals, according to the Nation to which it may belong, if any One or more of the Things herein-after specified shall be found in her Outfit or Equipment:

'1st.—Hatches with open Gratings, instead of the close Hatches which are usual in Merchant Vessels.

'2d.—Divisions or Bulkheads in the Hold or on Deck in greater Number than are necessary for Vessels engaged in lawful Trade.

'3d.—Spare Plank fitted for being laid down as a Second or Slave Deck.

'4th.—Shackles, Bolts, or Handcuffs.

'5th.—A larger Quantity of Water in Casks or Tanks than is requisite for the Consumption of the Crew of the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.

'6th.—An extraordinary Number of Water Casks, or of other Receptacles for holding Liquid; unless the Master shall produce a Certificate from the Custom House at the Place from which he cleared Outwards, stating that sufficient Security had been given by the Owners of such Vessel that such extra Quantity of Casks or of other Receptacles for holding Liquid should only be used to hold Palm Oil, or for other Purposes of lawful Commerce.

'7th.—A greater Quantity of Mess Tubs or Kids than are requisite for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.

'8th.—A Boiler or other Cooking Apparatus of an unusual Size, and larger or fitted for being made larger than requisite for the Use of the Crew of the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel, or more than One Boiler or other Cooking Apparatus of the ordinary Size.

'9th.—An extraordinary Quantity of Rice, of the Flour of Brazil, Manioc or Cassada commonly called Farinha, of Maize, or of Indian Corn, or of any other Article of Food whatever, beyond what might probably be requisite for the Use of the Crew.

'10th.—A Quantity of Mats or Matting greater than is necessary for the Use of the Vessel as a Merchant Vessel.

'The Articles enumerated in the 8th, 9th, and 10th Paragraphs, when found on board, shall not expose the Vessel to Detention or Trial, whenever such Articles shall appear as entered in the Manifest as Part of the Cargo for Trade.

'Any One or more of the several Things above enumerated, if proved to have been found on board, shall be considered as primâ facie Evidence of the actual Employment of the Vessel in the Slave Trade; and the Vessel shall thereupon be condemned, and be declared lawful Prize, unless clear and indisputable Evidence on the Part of the Master or Owners shall establish to the Satisfaction of the Court that such Vessel was at the Time of her Detention or Capture employed in some legal Pursuit; and that such of the several Things above enumerated as were found on board her at the Time of her Detention were needed for legal Purposes on that particular Voyage.

'ARTICLE VI.—In order to regulate the Mode of carrying into execution the Visit of Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations by the Cruizers charged with the Duty of preventing the Slave Trade, it is agreed that the Commanders of such Cruizers shall be furnished with Copies of this Treaty in English and in Spanish, and with Copies of the Instructions contained in the Appendix annexed thereto, which Instructions shall be considered as an integral Part of the present Treaty.

'ARTICLE VII.—If the Commanding Officer of any of those Ships of the Navies of Great Britain and of the Granadian Republic respectively, which shall be duly commissioned according to the Provisions of this Treaty, shall deviate in any respect from the Stipulations of the said Treaty, or from the Instructions annexed to it, the Government which shall conceive itself to be wronged thereby shall be entitled to demand Reparation; and in such Case the Government to which such Commanding Officer may belong binds itself to cause Inquiry to be made into the Subject Matter of the Complaint, and to inflict upon the said Officer a Punishment proportioned to the Transgression committed.

'ARTICLE VIII.—The Two High Contracting Parties mutually engage to make good the Damages and Losses which may be incurred by the illegal Detention of the Vessels of their respective Subjects or Citizens, it being understood that the Government to which the capturing Ship belongs shall pay the Damages and Losses occasioned to the captured Vessel; and that this Payment shall be made within the Term of One Year, reckoning from the Day on which the proper Tribunal shall have pronounced a definitive Sentence on the Vessel for the Detention of which such Compensation is claimed.

'ARTICLE IX.—If any of the Things specified in Article V. of this Treaty shall be found in any Merchant Vessel detained under this Treaty, no Compensation for Losses, Damages, or Expenses consequent upon the Detention of such Vessel shall in any Case be granted either to her Master or to her Owner, or to any other Person interested in her Equipment or Cargo, even though the proper Tribunal should not pronounce any Sentence of Condemnation in consequence of her Detention.

'ARTICLE X.—It is hereby agreed between the Two High Contracting Parties, that in all Cases 'in which a Vessel shall be detained under this Treaty by their respective Cruizers as having 'been engaged in the Slave Trade, or as having been fitted out for the Purposes thereof, and shall 'in consequence thereof be adjudged and condemned by the proper Tribunal, the said Vessel 'shall, immediately after Condemnation, be broken up entirely into several Parts, so as to be useless 'as a Vessel, and shall be sold in separate Parts after having been so broken up.

'ARTICLE XI.—The Visit and Detention of Vessels in pursuance of Article II. of this Treaty 'shall be effected only by such of the Ships of the British and Granadian Navies respectively 'as shall be provided with the special Instructions contained in the Appendix annexed to this 'Treaty; and each of the Two High Contracting Parties shall from Time to Time communicate 'to each other the Names of the Ships of War which are furnished with such Instructions, the Force 'of each Ship, and the Names of their several Commanders.

'ARTICLE XII.—It is by no means to be understood that by the Provisions of the present Treaty 'New Granada shall be under any Obligation to fit out Cruizers expressly to aid in the Pursuit of 'Vessels engaged in the Slave Trade.

'ARTICLE XIII.—All the Slaves who are found on board a Merchant Vessel detained either 'by British or Granadian Cruizers in conformity with the Stipulations of this Treaty shall be 'placed at the Disposal of Her Britannic Majesty's Government at the Time and at the several 'Ports which shall be stipulated in the Appendix annexed to this Treaty, and shall immediately be 'set at liberty, and shall be secured in the permanent Enjoyment of their Freedom.

'ARTICLE XIV.—The High Contracting Parties to the present Treaty mutually agree, that 'if at the Expiration of Twenty-four Years, reckoned from the Date of the Exchange of the 'Ratifications thereof, it shall appear desirable to either of the Contracting Parties, either on 'account of the Trade in Slaves having ceased, or for other Reasons, that the present Treaty 'should cease and determine, it shall be lawful for that One of the Contracting Parties to give 'Notice thereof to the other Contracting Party; and the Treaty shall cease and determine 'accordingly at the End of One Year from the Date of the Receipt of such Notice.

'And it is clearly understood, that if, in pursuance of the Right which the High Contracting 'Parties reserve to themselves by this Article, the present Treaty should be annulled at any Time 'anterior to the total and final Cessation of the Traffic in Slaves, the Obligations contracted 'towards Great Britain by the Republic of New Granada by Article XIII. of the Treaty of One 'thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, "to co-operate with Great Britain for the total '"Abolition of the Slave Trade," will nevertheless remain in full Force until such total and final 'Abolition is effected.

'ARTICLE XV.—The present Treaty, consisting of Fifteen Articles, shall come into operation on 'the Seventh of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two. The Treaty shall be ratified, 'and the Ratifications thereof exchanged in Bogotá, within the Space of Nine Months from this 'Date, or sooner if possible.

'In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have thereunto 'affixed their respective Seals.

'Done at Bogotá this Second Day of April in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight 'hundred and fifty-one.

[9th May 1853.]

'WHEREAS, in order to provide Monies for the Execution of certain Improvements in the Metropolis, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, herein-after called "The Commissioners of Woods," were authorized to charge, and did by virtue of divers Acts charge, various Funds (which for the Purposes of this Act are intended to be included under the Denomination of "The London Bridge Approaches Fund," and by that Term are hereby described,) with the Payment of certain Sums of Money, by way of Principal and Interest thereon; but inasmuch as the Funds so charged were then subject to certain prior Charges, the Commissioners of Woods were authorized to raise and did raise certain Monies by Mortgage of certain Hereditaments, Part of the Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown, in order to obtain the Means of immediately effecting such Improvements, and such last-mentioned Monies were so applied; and with Part thereof certain Lands and Hereditaments were purchased for the Purposes of such Improvements, of which Lands a Part not being wanted now remains and is liable to be sold: And whereas the Money so borrowed on the Security of the said Land Revenues, and the Amount since paid for Interest thereon, out of the Income of the said Land Revenues, are to be repaid out of the Monies charged as aforesaid on the London Bridge Approaches Fund, and out of the Monies to arise from the Sale and the Income till Sale of the surplus Lands and Hereditaments purchased as aforesaid, and out of a Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds and Interest secured by Mortgage from the Westminster Improvement Commissioners, but subject to the Charges herein-after mentioned, and it is considered that such Means of Repayment will be ample for such Purpose; but inasmuch as the Monies charged on the London Bridge Approaches Fund are only payable out of the accruing Produce thereof, and the other Monies so applicable are not yet realized, it is expedient to make Provision for the Discharge, out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, of the Monies charged on the Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, and the Monies from Time to Time paid out of the Income of the Land Revenues for Interest as aforesaid: And whereas the Monies so charged on the London Bridge Approaches Fund were made subject to the Payment of the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds and Interest, borrowed and advanced as directed by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-four, to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners, and also of the said Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds and Interest, raised and lent to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Twelve, and by another Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and three, Two several Sums of Thirty thousand Pounds and Thirty thousand Pounds and Interest were directed to be paid out of the Monies charged on the London Bridge Approaches Fund, as in the said Acts is mentioned, towards certain Improvements in Southwark, but the same have not yet been paid: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-two, the said Hereditaments purchased by the Commissioners of Woods with the Monies so borrowed for the Purposes of such Improvements as aforesaid, and which were not wanted for the Purposes of the new Streets, are now vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and their Successors, as incorporated by such Act, and herein-after called "The Commissioners of Works:"' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

II. Such Monies for the Discharge of the Principal Monies, and also such further Sums as shall be sufficient to pay and keep down all Interest to become due on such Principal Monies after the passing of this Act, shall be paid to the Commissioners of Works, to be applied in discharge of the said Principal Monies and Interest charged on the said Land Revenues; and on the Payment of any such Principal Monies and Interest as aforesaid the Land Revenues which were so charged with the Payment thereof shall be released therefrom, and reconveyed to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Charges on the London Bridge Approaches Fund to be paid to Commissioners of Works, and carried to Consolidated Fund.

III. All the Monies so charged on the said London Bridge Approaches Fund as aforesaid, after paying the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, and Thirty thousand Pounds so borrowed and lent to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners as aforesaid, and Interest thereon as aforesaid, or so much as shall remain unpaid at the passing of this Act, shall be paid to the Commissioners of Works, and shall be paid by them into the Bank of England to the Account of the said Consolidated Fund, freed and discharged from all the said Monies directed to be paid or retained thereout in respect of the Southwark Improvements aforesaid.

VI. The Commissioners of Works shall sell, when and as the said Commissioners of the Treasury may direct, all the said Lands and Hereditaments so vested in them as aforesaid, and which were purchased in the Formation of the said Improvements as aforesaid, and not used for such Streets as aforesaid.

Until Sale the Commissioners of Works may let, and compel Performance of Covenants, &c.

VII. The Commissioners of Works, with Consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, till Sale, may lease, and may perform and compel the Performance of any Agreement for Sale or for Lease already entered into, and may recover all Rents and Monies due on any Contract or otherwise in respect of the said Hereditaments, in all respects as they might have done if this Act had not passed.

SCHEDULE.

WAKEFIELD.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the Borough of Wakefield, in the County of York.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS it having been ascertained from the last Return, for the Time being, made up by the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, that the annual Number of Deaths within the Boundaries of the Borough of Wakefield, in the County of York, as the same were fixed for the Purposes of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act "to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," has on an Average of Seven Years exceeded during that Period the Proportion of Twenty-three to a Thousand of the Population of such Borough, the General Board of Health have, in pursuance of the Provisions of that Act, directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, to visit the said Borough, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Borough for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Borough, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; and also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of that Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by the Act.

And whereas it appears upon such Report that there are certain Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Borough, having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act; (that is to say,)

An Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act "for the better paving, repairing, and cleansing the Streets, Lanes, Alleys, and other public "Passages within that Part of the Town of Wakefield, in the County of York, which lies "within the East End of Westgate Bridge, the South Side of Northgate Bar, the North End "of Kirkgate Bridge (except so much thereof as is repaired by the West Riding of the said "County of York), and the extreme Part of the Township of Wakefield aforesaid, leading from "Wrengate towards East Moor; for preventing Nuisances and Annoyances therein, and for "widening and rendering the same more commodious;" and also another Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the same Reign, intituled "An Act for lighting and watching the Streets "and other public Passages and Places within the Town of Wakefield, in the County of York, "and for more effectually cleansing the same, and removing and preventing Obstructions, "Nuisances, and Annoyances therein."

And whereas from such Report it appears that, although the Mortality of Wakefield is below that of some of the neighbouring Towns, it is still excessive, and that the real Cause of this excessive Mortality is to be found in the generally defective Nature of the existing sanitary Arrangements; that certain Localities contribute an undue Proportion of the Mortality of the whole Borough, and that in these Quarters there is the least Sewerage and Drainage, the largest Collection of offensive Refuse, and the scantiest Supply of Water; that the unsatisfactory Condition of the Borough in these respects may be accounted for by the defective Nature of the Local Acts, and the divided Jurisdiction exercised by the various public Bodies; that this divided Jurisdiction further causes unnecessary Expense, and effectually prevents the carrying out of general and comprehensive Measures; that the existing Water Supply requires Re-adjustment and Extension; that the present Sewerage and Drainage is much too limited in Extent, and that where Sewers or House Drains are laid down, they are, in many Cases, defective both in Construction and Arrangement; that the partial Provisions made for either Sewerage or House Drains have been carried out at various Periods and in various Ways, instead of on a combined and carefully arranged System, by which alone due Efficiency can be secured, and that the present Outfalls for the Sewage are also highly prejudicial to Health; that the present System of cleansing the Streets and removing the House Refuse is imperfect; that the existing Burial Grounds are insufficient, and some of them unfit to be longer used as Places of Interment; that many Portions of the Town are insufficiently lighted, particularly a great Number of the Courts and Lanes occupied by the poorer Classes; that it would be a Means of Health and Comfort to all, but particularly the poorer Classes of the Borough, if public Baths and Wash-houses were established.

And whereas it appears to the said General Board of Health to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to the said Borough; and that Provision should be made with respect to the said Local Acts of Parliament, and the partial Repeal, Alteration, Extension, and further Execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Power vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order, under our Hands and Seal of Office direct:—

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order,—

1. In the Construction of this Order, and of the Sections of the several Acts of Parliament incorporated therewith, the same Meanings shall be assigned to certain Expressions which are assigned to them by the Section numbered 2 in the Copies of "The Public Health Act, 1848," printed by Her Majesty's Printer, unless such Meanings be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Context or Subject Matter in which such Expressions occur.
2. The "Public Health Act, 1848," and every Part thereof relating to Corporate Districts, except the Section numbered 50 in the Copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to the Area comprised within the Boundaries of the said Borough of Wakefield.
3. The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough shall be, by the Council of the said Borough, the Local Board of Health under the said Public Health Act.
4. Such Parts of the said Local Acts as are specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be repealed, except in so far as relates to anything done before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, and except in so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.
5. The Powers, Authorities, and Duties of the Commissioners for the Time being acting in execution of the said Local Acts shall cease; and such of them as are granted or imposed by the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts shall, so far as they are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any Byelaw which shall be lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and the Officers and Servants of the said Local Board, and shall be exercised as if they had been granted or imposed by the said Public Health Act; and for this Purpose the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act as applied to the said Borough, and all Places within the Limits of the said Borough shall be subject to the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts.
6. The said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts.
7. All Property and Estate of the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Local Acts shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall, as near as Circumstances will permit, be held by the said Local Board of Health upon the same Trusts, and for the same Purposes, as by such Commissioners.
8. All Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money contracted or payable by such Commissioners shall be satisfied by the said Local Board out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would have been chargeable therewith if this Order had not been made; and shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board, as by such Commissioners.
9. Provided always, that if such Property and Estate be insufficient for that Purpose, the Deficiency shall be charged upon the Rates leviable under the said Public Health Act, in the Parts only which would have been chargeable with such Deficiency if this Order had not been made.
10. Provided also, that if such Property and Estate be more than sufficient, the Surplus shall be applied to the exclusive Use of the same Parts and to the same Purposes as it would have been if this Order had not been made.
11. All Expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts, and which shall not be defrayed out of Monies arising under such Local Acts, shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred by such Board under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the Rates under that Act (as the Nature of the Case may require); and the Monies necessary to be raised for the Purposes of such Local Acts may be raised as under the said Public Health Act.
12. The Sections of the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to Obstructions and Nuisances in the Streets, and with respect to Fires, and with respect to Places of public Resort, and with respect to Hackney Carriages; and the Sections of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to naming the Streets and numbering the Houses, and with respect to improving the Line of the Streets and removing Obstructions, and with respect to ruinous or dangerous Buildings, and with respect to Precautions during the Construction and Repair of Sewers, Streets, and Houses; and the Section with respect to the Prevention of Nuisances, numbered 104; and the Sections with respect to the Construction of Houses for Prevention of Fire; and the Sections with respect to supplying Buildings with fresh Air, numbered 110 and 111; and the Section with with respect to Clocks; and so much of the Sections with respect to Things to be done by the Commissioners by special Order only, as relates to Baths and Wash-houses, except so much of the said last-mentioned Sections as requires any special Order in respect of the Matters contained therein, shall be incorporated with the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts, and with the said Public Health Act, as applied to the said Town, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Special Act," used in the said Sections, shall be construed to mean the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts, and the said Public Health Act so applied; and the Expression "Limits of the Special Act," used in the same Sections, shall be construed to mean the District constituted by this Order, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Commissioners," used in the said Sections, shall mean the said Local Board.

13. Provided always, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Acts mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under those Acts before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order; but notwithstanding this Order, and the Schedule thereto, all such Things shall be as valid with reference to the said Local Board of Health, as if the same had been done with reference to that Board, and may be dealt with in the same Manner, in all respects, as if they related to that Board, instead of such Commissioners.

14. Provided also, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Acts mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall be without Prejudice to any Penalties incurred under the said Local Acts, but all such Penalties may be recovered by the said Local Board of Health according to the Provisions of this Order.

Whereas the General Board of Health have, upon the joint Petition of not less than One Tenth of the Inhabitants rated to the Relief of the Poor of and within the Township of Elland-cum-Greetland, in the County of York, (the Number of the said Petitioners exceeding Thirty in the whole,) directed William Ranger, One of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Township, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Township for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Township, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing parochial or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

WALLASEY.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act, 1848, to the District of Wallasey, in the County of Chester.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, the General Board of Health, upon the joint Petition of not less than One Tenth of the Inhabitants rated to the Relief of the Poor of and within the Township of Poulton-cum-Seacombe, in the Parish of Wallasey, in the County of Chester, (the Number of the said Petitioners exceeding Thirty in the whole,) directed Robert Rawlinson, One of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Township, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Township for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Township, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing parochial or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices required by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act were not the same as those of the said Township with respect to which the said Inquiry had been made, the said Board caused the said Robert Rawlinson to visit the Parts within the Boundaries proposed to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, after having given such Notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all Persons desirous of being heard before him on the Subject of the said Report, and did make further Inquiry and Report according to the Directions of the said Board.

And whereas Copies of such further Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and all such Statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it appears upon such Reports that there is a certain Local Act in force within the said Township having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, that is to say,

An Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and otherwise improving the Parish of Wallasey, in the County of Chester; and for establishing a Police, and also a Market, within the said Parish; and for other Purposes."

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act should be applied to a District included within the same Boundaries as those of the herein-before recited Local Act, subject to the Extension hereafter mentioned, being the Boundaries within which the said Inquiry and further Inquiry have been made, and that Provision should be made in respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the Repeal, Alteration, Extension, and future Execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and official Seal, direct, That from and after the Day appointed for the First Election of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order:—

DUDLEY.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act, 1848, to the Parish of Dudley, in the County of Worcester.

General Board of Health.

Whereas it having been ascertained from the last Return for the Time being, made up by the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, that the annual Number of Deaths within the Boundaries of the Parish of Dudley has on the Average of Seven Years exceeded the Proportion of Twenty-three to a Thousand of the Population of such Parish, the General Board of Health directed William Lee, One of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Parish, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses, as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Parish for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Parish, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing parochial or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices required by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and no such Statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it appears upon such Report that there is a certain Local Act in force within the said Parish having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, that is to say,

An Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act "for paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, and otherwise improving the Town of Dudley, in the "County of Worcester, and for better supplying the said Town with Water."

And whereas from such Report it appears that the official Registers show an excessive Rate of Mortality in the Parish, and that the Health of the Parish would be much improved by proper Supplies of Water for for domestic and sanitary Purposes; by efficient Drainage of Houses and Courts; by the Abolition of open Cesspools, and the Substitution of Soil-pan Apparatus, with Water for carrying off House Refuse; by better paving and cleansing of Streets, Courts, and Alleys; and that such Improvements may be carried out with great pecuniary Saving to the Inhabitants.

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act should be applied to the said Parish, and that Provision should be made in respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the Repeal, Alteration, Extension, and future Execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and official Seal, direct, That from and after the Day appointed for the First Election of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order:—

3. One Third in Number of the said Local Board shall go out of Office on the Day next after the Expiration of a Year from the Day appointed by Parliament for the First Election of the said Local Board, and so on annually.
4. Every Person shall, when elected, and while he continues a Member of the said Local Board, be resident as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be possessed of Real or Personal Estate, or both, to the Amount of not less than One thousand Pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the Relief of the Poor of the said Parish, or of some Township or Place of which some Part is within the said District, upon an annual Value of not less than Thirty Pounds.
5. At the First Election of the said Local Board, the Reverend James Caulfeild Browne, D.C.L., Vicar of Dudley, shall perform the Duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said First Election; and in case the said James Caulfeild Browne, from Illness or other sufficient Cause, shall be unable to discharge such Duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Joseph Green Bourne, Esq., Solicitor, Dudley, shall perform such of the said Duties as then remain to be performed.
6. The Fourteen Days Notice of Qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by Owners of Property in order to entitle them to vote at the said First Election shall be given to the said James Caulfeild Browne, at his Residence, the Vicarage, Dudley; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the aforesaid Joseph Green Bourne, at his Residence, likewise within the District of Dudley aforesaid.

10. The said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Acts.
11. The Provisions (except as aforesaid) of the said Public Health Act may, whenever practicable, be applied to anything which shall arise under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and such unrepealed Parts shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act, and shall be extended to the whole of the said Parish.
12. All Property and Estate whatsoever of the Commissioners under the said Local Act shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall be held by them upon the same Trusts and for the same Purposes as by such Commissioners.
13. All Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money, contracted or payable by such Commissioners, shall be satisfied by the said Local Board out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would have been chargeable therewith if this Order had not been made, and shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board as by such Commissioners.
14. Provided always, that if such Property and Estate be insufficient, the Deficiency shall be charged upon the Rates leviable under the said Public Health Act, in the Parts only which would have been chargeable with such Deficiency if this Order had not been made.
15. Provided also, that if such Property and Estate be more than sufficient, the Surplus shall be applied to the Use of the same Parts and to the same Purposes as it would have been if this Order had not been made.

17. Provided always, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under that Act before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, but notwithstanding this Order and the Schedule thereto, all such Things shall be as valid, with reference to the said Local Board of Health, as if the same had been done with reference to that Board, and may be dealt with in the same Manner in all respects as if they related to that Board instead of such Commissioners.

18. Provided also, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall be without Prejudice to any Penalties incurred under that Act, but all such Penalties may be recovered by the said Local Board of Health, according to the Provisions of this Order.

DORCHESTER.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset.

General Board of Health.

Whereas it having been ascertained from the last Return, for the Time being, made up by the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, from the Deaths registered in a Period of not less than Seven Years, to wit, the Period commencing the First Day of September in the Year of our Lord 1838 and ending on the Thirty-first Day of August in the Year of our Lord 1844, that the Number of Deaths annually within the Boundaries of the Four Parishes of All Saints, St. Peter, Holy Trinity, and Fordington,

Fordington, in the County of Dorset, within which is situate the Borough of Dorchester, has on an Average exceeded during that Period the Proportion of Twenty-three to a Thousand of the Population of such Parishes, the General Board of Health have directed Robert Rawlinson, One of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Parishes, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Parishes, for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Parishes, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; and also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Public Health Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other Matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of that Act.

And whereas Copies of the said Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the Public Health Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and no such Statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act were not the same as those of the said Town with respect to which the said Inquiry had been made, the said Board caused the said Robert Rawlinson to visit the Parts within the Boundaries proposed to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, after having given such Notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all Persons desirous of being heard before him on the Subject of the said Report, and did make further Inquiry and Report according to the Directions of the said Board.

And whereas Copies of such further Report, accompanied by a Notice, stating that, within the Time directed by the said Act, written Statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any Matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any Amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the Time for forwarding such Statements has now elapsed, and no such Statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it appears upon such Report and further Report, that there is a certain Local Act of Parliament in force within the said Parishes, having relation to the Purposes of the said Public Health Act, (that is to say,)

An Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act "for better paving, cleansing, lighting, watching, watering, and otherwise improving the Streets "and other public Passages and Places within the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of "Dorset, and the Tithing of Colliton Row, in the Town of Dorchester aforesaid."

And whereas the said Parishes wholly include the Municipal Borough of Dorchester, as the Boundaries thereof were fixed for the Purposes of an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England "and Wales."

And whereas, on such Report and further Report, it appears that in the said Borough epidemic, endemic, and contagious Diseases prevail, and the average Mortality is excessive; that the local governing Bodies of the Borough are limited as to the Area of their Jurisdiction, and deficient as to Power; that there is no proper System of Sewers nor Drains; that Streets are unpaved and in a dirty Condition; that lighting in the Suburbs is not so general as it ought to be for Safety and Comfort; that Streets are confined, Yards are without adequate Means of Ventilation, and that many of the Houses and Room Tenements inhabited by the Poor are in a most neglected, wretched, and filthy Condition; that Immorality, Dissipation, Disease, and Pauperism are the Consequences; that there is a high Rate of Mortality; and that the Cost to the Ratepayers consequent upon such a State is excessive; that there are many Middens crowded upon Dwelling Houses, and even under Sleeping Rooms; that the Graveyards are unduly crowded; that better Arrangements for paving, cleansing, and regulating the Streets should be made; that more stringent Regulations for the slaughtering of Cattle and Sheep will be an Advantage; that Power to close objectionable Dwellings and Room Tenements is needed, as also to regulate Common Lodging Houses; that Power to erect Baths, Wash-houses, and Model Lodging Houses may be exercised for the general Benefit of the Ratepayers.

And whereas for all these Reasons it appears to the said General Board of Health to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to the said Borough; and that Provision should be made with respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the partial Repeal, Alteration, Extension, and further Execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the Authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Power vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under our Hands and Seal of Office, direct:—

That from the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order,—

The Powers of the Commissioners for the Time being acting in execution of the said Local Act, and of their Officers, shall cease; and such of them as are granted by the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act shall, so far as the same are not repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any Byelaw which shall be lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and such of the Officers of the said Local Board as shall be appointed in that Behalf under the said Public Health Act, and shall be exercised in the same Manner, as nearly as may be, as if such Powers had been granted by the said Public Health Act.
6. The said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act.
7. All Property and Estate whatsoever of the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Local Act shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall, as near as Circumstances will permit, be held by the said Local Board upon the same Trusts, and for the same Purposes, as by such Commissioners.
8. All Debts, Monies, and Securities for Money, payable by such Commissioners, shall be satisfied by the said Local Board within the same Times as they would have been by such Commissioners, out of such Parts of the said transferred Property and Estate as would have been chargeable in respect of the same if this Order had not been made.
9. Provided always, that if such Property and Estate be insufficient, the Deficiency shall be charged upon the Rates leviable under the said Public Health Act in the Parts only which would have been chargeable with such Deficiency if this Order had not been made.
10. Provided also, that if such Property and Estate be more than sufficient, the Surplus shall be applied to the Parts and Purposes to which the same would have been applied if this Order had not been made.
11. All Expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act, and not defrayed out of the Monies arising under such Local Act, shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the Rates leviable under that Act (as the Nature of the Case may require); and the Monies necessary to be raised for the Purposes of such Local Act may be raised as under the said Public Health Act; and the unrepealed Parts of the said Local Act shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act, and shall extend to all Parts comprised within the Boundaries of the said Borough.
12. The Sections of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to naming the Streets and numbering the Houses, and with respect to improving the Line of the Streets and removing Obstructions, and with respect to ruinous or dangerous Buildings, and with respect to Precautions during the Construction and Repair of the Sewers, Streets, and Houses, and the Sections with respect to the Abatement of Nuisances, numbered 104, 105, and 106 in the Copies of the said Act printed by the Queen's Printers, and the Sections with respect to the Prevention of Smoke, and with respect to the Construction of Houses for the Prevention of Fire, and with respect to supplying Buildings with fresh Air, and with respect to Clocks; and the Sections of the Towns Police Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to Obstructions and Nuisances in the Streets, and with respect to Fires, and with respect to Places of public Resort, shall be incorporated with so much of the said Local Act as remains unrepealed by this Order, and with the said Public Health Act, as applied to the said Borough by this Order, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Special Act," used in the said Sections, shall be construed to mean so much of the said Local Act as remains unrepealed, and the said Public Health Act so applied as aforesaid; and the Expression "Limits of the Special Act," used in the same Sections, shall be construed to mean the District constituted by this Order, and any Act of Parliament confirming the same; and the Expression "the Commissioners," used in the said Sections, shall mean the said Local Board.
13. Provided always, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under the said Local Act before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order; but all such Things shall be as valid with reference to the said Local Board as if the same had been done with reference to that

Board

Board instead of the Commissioners acting in execution of the said Local Act, and may be dealt with as if that Board, instead of such Commissioners, had been referred to therein.

14. Provided also, that this Order, and the Repeal of the Parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule, shall be without Prejudice to any Penalties incurred under the said Local Act, but all such Penalties may be enforced and recovered by the said Local Board of Health according to the Provisions of this Order.

WELSHPOOL.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the District of Welshpool, in the County of Montgomery.

General Board of Health.

Whereas, in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, the General Board of Health, appointed for the Purposes of the said Act have, upon the Petition of not less than One Tenth of the Inhabitants rated to the Relief of the Poor of and within the Boundaries of the Parish of Pool, in the County of Montgomery, (the Number of the said Petitioners greatly exceeding Thirty in the whole,) directed George Thomas Clark, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the Purposes of the said Act, to visit the said Parish, and to make public Inquiry, and to examine Witnesses as to the Sewerage, Drainage, and Supply of Water, the State of the Burial Grounds, the Number and sanitary Condition of the Inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within such Parish for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with Water, or improving the said Parish, or having relation to the Purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural Drainage Areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local Boundaries, and the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the Notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said Inquiry in the Manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in Writing to the said General Board upon the several Matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other Matters in respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the Purposes of the said Act.

And whereas, it having appeared to the said General Board upon such Report that the Boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the Purposes of the said Act were not the same as those of the said Parish, the said General Board, in further pursuance of the said Act, caused the same Superintending Inspector (after having given the Notices required by the said Act in that Behalf) to visit the Parts within the Boundaries proposed to be adopted for the Purposes of the said Act, to hear all Persons desirous of being heard before him upon the Subject of the said Report, and to make further Inquiry and Report to the said Board thereon.

'nevertheless sometimes resorted to for Purposes of Expense and Delay:' Be it enacted, That no Indictment, except Indictments against Bodies Corporate not authorized to appear by Attorney in the Court in which the Indictment is preferred, shall be removed into the Court of Queen's Bench, or into the Central Criminal Court, by Writ of Certiorari, either at the Instance of the Prosecutor or of the Defendant (other than the Attorney General acting on behalf of the Crown), unless it be made to appear to the Court from which the Writ is to issue, by the Party applying for the same, that a fair and impartial Trial of the Case cannot be had in the Court below, or that some Question of Law of more than usual Difficulty and Importance is likely to arise upon the Trial, or that a View of the Premises in respect whereof any Indictment is preferred, or a Special Jury, may be required for the satisfactory Trial of the same.

No Certiorari to issue to remove Indictment, unless Recognizance given for Payment of Costs.

How Costs to be taxed and recovered.

VI. The Costs herein-before respectively mentioned shall be taxed according to the Course of the Court of Queen's Bench; and for the Recovery thereof the Persons entitled thereto shall, at the Expiration of Ten Days after Demand made of the Person or Persons at whose Instance the Writ of Certiorari was awarded, and on Oath made of such Demand and Refusal of Payment, have a Writ of Attachment granted against him or them by the Court of Queen's Bench for such Contempt; and the said Court shall and may also order the said Recognizance to be estreated into the Exchequer.

If no Recognizance, Court to try as if no Certiorari awarded.

VII. If the Person or Persons at whose Instance any Writ of Certiorari shall be awarded shall not, before the Allowance thereof, enter into such Recognizance as is herein-before provided, the Court to which such Writ may be directed shall and may proceed to the Trial of the Indictment, as if such Writ of Certiorari had not been awarded.

Not to apply to certain Certioraris.

Where Recognizance estreated, or Judgment affirmed or Writ of Error quashed, Judge may issue Warrant.

V. And whenever it shall be made appear to any One of the Judges of the Superior Courts of Record at Westminster, either by Affidavit or by Certificate of the proper Officer of the Court of Error, that the Recognizance of a Defendant given under the Provisions of this Act hath been ordered to be estreated, or that Judgment upon the said Writ hath been affirmed, or that such Writ of Error hath been quashed, and that Default hath been made by the Space of Four Days in rendering the Defendant to Prison in execution of the Judgment, it shall be lawful for such Judge to issue his Warrant under his Hand and Seal, and thereby to cause such Defendant to be apprehended, and conveyed to the Gaol or Prison in which such Defendant may have been adjudged to be imprisoned, pursuant to and in execution of the Judgment given against such Defendant.

How Time of Imprisonment shall be reckoned when Defendant rendered in execution.

VI. In every Case in which a Defendant shall be committed by any Court of Error in execution of the Judgment given against such Defendant, and in every Case in which a Defendant shall, by virtue of any Warrant or in other Manner, be rendered to Prison in execution of such Judgment, the Imprisonment of such Defendant (if Imprisonment shall not have commenced under such Execution) shall be reckoned to begin from the Day when such Defendant shall be in actual Custody in the Gaol or Prison in which he may have been adjudged to be imprisoned under such Judgment; and if the Defendant shall have been discharged from Imprisonment on giving Bail in Error, as is herein-before mentioned, such Defendant shall be imprisoned for such further Period in the same Prison as, with the Time during which such Defendant may already have been imprisoned under such Execution, shall be equal to the Period for which he was adjudged to be imprisoned as aforesaid.

VIII. 'And

If Default made by Defendant in proceeding to Trial in Queen's Bench, Court may estreat Recognizance without Scire facias.

VIII. 'And whereas in Cases of Default made by Parties in performing the Conditions of Recognizances into which they may have entered to proceed to the Trial of Issues joined upon any Indictment or Information filed in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench it hath been the Usage and Practice to enforce the Forfeiture of such Recognizances by Writ of Scire facias, and the Course of Procedure by Scire facias in such Cases is dilatory, inconvenient, and expensive:' Be it therefore enacted, That in every such Case of Default it shall be lawful for the said Court, or a Judge thereof, to call upon the Parties who have entered into such Recognizance, by Rule or Order to show Cause why such Recognizance should not be estreated into the Exchequer, and thereupon, unless Cause shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the said Court or Judge, in excuse of such Default, such Court or Judge may order such Recognizance to be estreated into the Exchequer.

CAP. XLV.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws and to grant additional Facilities in relation to the Purchase of Government Annuities through the Medium of Saving Banks, and to make other Provisions in respect thereof. [4th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the existing Acts of Parliament relating to the Purchase of Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks should be repealed, in order that the same may be consolidated and amended:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

So much of 3 W. 4. c. 14. and 7 & 8 Vict. c. 83. as relates to Purchase of Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks, &c. repealed.

I. So much of the Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Fourteen, as relates to the enabling Depositors in Savings Banks and others to purchase Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks and Parochial Societies, and so much of another Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-three, as relates to the Purchase of Government Annuities through the Medium of Savings Banks, shall be repealed, except as to anything heretofore done, or which shall hereafter be required to be done, in respect to any Annuities granted under the said Acts or either of them, and except also so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of any Proceedings to be taken under or by virtue of the same Acts or either of them, such Repeal to commence and take effect on and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Commissioners for Reduction of National Debt may receive Money from Depositors,

II. From and after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant to or for the Benefit of any Depositor in a Savings Bank, or other Person whom the said Commissioners shall think entitled to be or to become a Depositor in a Savings Bank, any Immediate or Deferred Life Annuities depending on single Lives, or Immediate Annuities depending on joint Lives with Benefit of Survivorship

&c. for Purchase of Annuities.

Survivorship or on the joint Continuance of Two Lives, to any Amount not less than Four Pounds nor more than Thirty Pounds in the whole, to or for the Benefit of any One Person, and to receive Payment for such Immediate Life Annuities in One Sum, and for such Deferred Life Annuities either in One Sum or in annual Sums payable for fixed Periods: Provided always, that no such Annuities shall be granted to or for the Benefit of any Person under the Age of Ten Years.

Annuity may be granted to Husband and Wife.

III. Such Annuity may be granted to or possessed by any married Man or Woman, although an Annuity to the same or a less Amount may have been granted to or possessed by the Wife or Husband of such Party.

Deferred Annuities may be granted with a Condition that Purchase Money shall be returnable;

IV. The said Commissioners may grant such Deferred Life Annuities on condition that the Purchase Money shall be returnable, but without Interest, in which Case such Purchase Money without Interest shall be returnable at any Time on the Application of the Person beneficially interested in such Annuity, or after his Death on the Application of his Executors or Administrators; provided always, that in no Case whatever shall such Purchase Money or any Part thereof be returned after the first Payment of the said Annuity shall have actually become due, and the Monies so returnable shall be charged, paid, and defrayed out of the Monies standing in the Names of the said Commissioners at the Bank of England under the Provisions of this Act.

or with a Condition that Purchase Money shall not be returnable.

V. The said Commissioners may grant in like Manner and to the like Persons Deferred Life Annuities, of not less than One Pound or some Multiple thereof, not exceeding Thirty Pounds in the whole, to any One Person, and receive Payment for such Annuity in One Sum on condition that the Purchase Money shall not be returnable.

Parties unable to keep up Payments may have an Annuity granted in lieu of Money returned.

VI. Where a Party who has contracted under the Acts hereby repealed or shall contract under this Act for the Purchase of a Deferred Life Annuity by annual Payments shall, after having made One or more of such Payments, be unable to pay the Residue thereof, the said Commissioners may, at the Option of the Party beneficially interested in such Annuity, grant to such Party a Life Annuity, immediate or deferred, equivalent to the Amount of the several Payments so made by him, instead of returning the Amount of such Payments in Money.

Power to convert Deferred into Immediate Annuity.

VII. Where a Party has already contracted under the Acts hereby repealed, or shall hereafter contract under this Act, by Payment in One Sum for a Deferred Life Annuity, the said Commissioners may, at the Option of the Party, grant an Immediate Life Annuity in place and instead of the Deferred Life Annuity, which shall forthwith be cancelled.

Name of Party to be always inserted in Grant.

VIII. No Annuity shall be granted under the Authority of this Act unless the Name of the Party on whose Life and for whose Benefit the Purchase is proposed to be effected shall be inserted in the Grant as a joint Proprietor of the said Annuity.

Cases in which Grants of Annuities may be to Trustees.

IX. No such Annuity shall be granted otherwise than in the sole Name of the Person on whose Life and for whose Benefit the said Annuity is granted, except in the Case of Females, Infants under the Age of Twenty-one Years, Idiots, Persons of unsound Mind or incapacitated by bodily or mental Infirmity from taking care of themselves, of which Proof shall be afforded at the Time of making the Contract to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, or Comptroller General or Assistant Comptoller acting under them, in which Cases it shall be lawful to grant such Annuities as are authorized by this Act upon the Life of any such Person to such Person and to any Two or more Persons not interested therein as Trustees for such Person, under such Regulations as shall be prescribed by the said Commissioners or Comptroller General.

Power to grant Money on Death of Persons purchasing Deferred Annuities.

X. The said Commissioners may contract with any such Person or Persons for the Payment of a Sum of Money on his or her Death, provided that the Party contracting for such Payment on Death shall at the same Time purchase a Deferred Annuity depending upon his or her own Life, as the Case may be, and that the Money payable on Death do not exceed the Amount of the Sum paid down for the said Payment on Death and Annuity taken together, and shall in no Case exceed One hundred Pounds in the whole.

Contracts may be made at National Debt Office, or through the Medium of Savings Banks, &c.

XI. The said Commissioners may make such Contracts with such Parties for the Grant of any Annuities under the Authority of this Act, either directly at their own Office or through the Medium of Savings Banks or Parochial or other Societies, or Agents duly authorized by the said Commissioners for such Purpose, and under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall prescribe, and in such last-mentioned Cases may authorize the said Savings Banks and Societies and Agents to take and demand the like Fees as are sanctioned in respect to such Annuities by the Act of the Seventh and Eighth Victoria above referred to.

Money paid on account of Purchase of Annuity to be kept distinct, and paid to Account of Commissioners.

XII. The said Annuities and Payments on Death herein referred to are hereby made chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and all Sums of Money from Time to Time paid on account of such Contracts under this Act, or under the Acts hereby repealed, shall be paid into the Bank of England or into the Bank of Ireland to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time prescribe in that respect; and the Cashiers of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland are hereby required to receive all such Monies, and to place the same to the Accounts of the said Commissioners to be entitled "The Fund for purchasing Life Annuities or for Payments on Death, on the Account of "Depositors in Savings Banks (as the Case may be);" and the said Commissioners shall in like Manner keep distinct and separate Accounts of all Monies so placed to the said Accounts, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

XIII. The said Commissioners, or the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, may require such Proofs of Age and of Identity, and such Certificates, and make such such Rules and Regulations in respect to the Grant of all Annuities, and for securing Payments on Death, under the Authority of this Act, and to the Payment thereof, and also to the Payment of all Annuities granted under the Acts hereby repealed, as may appear to them to be necessary and proper for carrying out the Purposes of this Act; and may decline or refuse to contract for any Annuity or for any Payment on Death, under the Provisions of this Act, in any Case where there shall be in the Opinion of the said Commissioners, or of the said Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller, sufficient Grounds for refusing or declining so to do.

Commissioners, &c. may decline to contract for Annuities, &c.

XIV. If any One Individual shall by his own direct Act have or hold or be possessed of or entitled to any Annuity or Annuities granted under the Provisions of this Act or of the Acts hereby repealed, exceeding in the whole the Sum of Thirty Pounds per Annum, or shall make a false Declaration in relation to any Matter or Thing required by the Regulations of the said Commissioners, all the said Annuity or Annuities and Payments on Death shall be forfeited.

Penalty on Persons making false Declaration, &c.

XV. If any Person having contracted for the Payment of a Sum of Money on Death in the Manner herein-before provided shall at any Time, in Writing, in a Form approved of by the said Commissioners, and deposited with them during his Life, direct that the Sum payable at his or her Death be commuted for an Annuity for Life, to commence at his or her Death, and to be paid to any Persons nominated in the said Writing, such Commutation shall take effect, when approved of by the said Commissioners, or by the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller acting under the said Commissioners, and the Person so nominated shall be entitled to such Life Annuity as shall be the Equivalent to such Sum of Money so payable after Death as aforesaid, such Annuity to commence and take effect on and from the Sixth Day of January, Sixth Day of April, Sixth Day of July, and Eleventh Day of October, as the Case may be, next immediately following the Death of the Party nominating, and be payable and paid at the next following half-yearly Period.

Persons contracting for Payments of Sums of Money at Death may commute the same into an Annuity payable after Death to Nominees.

XVI. For the better carrying this Act into execution it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time as they shall think fit, to direct the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to use and adopt such Tables as shall from Time to Time be authorized and approved of by the said Commissioners of the Treasury for determining the Values of all Annuities, of whatsoever Kind, which may be granted according to the Provisions of this Act, as well as Tables for Payment of Sums of Money at Death, and such respective Tables shall be valid and effectual for the Purposes of this Act; and all Annuities for Lives, of whatsoever Kind, to be purchased under the Provisions of this Act shall be purchased, and all Payments for Sums to be secured at Death shall be contracted for, according to the Values stated in such Tables respectively, so long as the same shall remain in force; and the said Commissioners of the Treasury may alter, revoke, and recall all or any of the said Tables from Time to Time, and direct the Use and Adoption of such other Tables in lieu thereof as shall be approved of by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, and also discontinue, by any Warrant under their Hands addressed to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, the granting of any Annuities for Lives, or of Sums payable at Death, under the Provisions of this Act, if they shall think it fit and expedient so to do: Provided always, that the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall, previous to the Adoption and using of any such Tables, and Discontinuance of the granting of such Annuities and Payments at Death as aforesaid, give Notice thereof from Time to Time in the London, Edinburgh, and Dublin Gazettes, in such Form and Manner as to the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt shall seem fit and proper: Provided also, that the Tables now in force in respect to Annuities grantable under the Authority of the Acts hereby repealed shall be valid and effective for the Purchase and Grant of any Annuities under this Act, so far as they are applicable thereto, until altered, revoked, and recalled by the said Commissioners of the Treasury.

Treasury shall direct Use of Tables of the Value of Annuities as approved by them.

XVII. In every Case when any Sum of Money shall be paid as the Consideration for the Purchase of any Annuity for Lives of whatsoever Kind, under the Provisions of this Act, or for securing a Payment on Death, the Person or Persons purchasing any such Annuity for Lives or for securing such Payment on Death, shall be entitled to receive from the Period at which the said Annuity is to commence and take effect an Annuity for a Life, or for joint Lives with Benefit of Survivorship, or on the joint Continuance of Two Lives, as the Case may be, of such annual Amount as shall be specified in any such Table or Tables respectively as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time authorize and approve in manner herein-before directed, to be calculated and ascertained according to the Age of the Party; and every Payment to be made on Death shall in like Manner be ascertained and settled according to the said Tables so to be approved and adopted from Time to Time as aforesaid.

Purchasers of Annuities for Lives shall be entitled to such Amount of Annuity as shall be specified in the Tables.

All Life Annuities, of whatsoever Kind, which shall be purchased and granted under the Provisions of this Act, (whether such Life Annuities shall commence immediately or not,) and all Payments at Death, shall, in their due Course as the same shall fall due and become payable, be carried to a new and separate Account in the Books of the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

XIX. Whenever Proof of the Age of any Person shall have been once produced to the said Commissioners under the Provisions of any Act for the Purchase of any Annuity or Annuities on the Life of such Person, the original Proof of the Age of such Person, produced at the Time of the Purchase of the First Annuity upon the Life of such Person, shall be deemed sufficient in the Case of any proposed Purchase of a further Annuity on such Life under the Provisions of this Act, or of any other Act or Acts now in force authorizing the Grant of Annuities, without the Production of any further Proof of Age.

Life Annuitants may make further Purchases without fresh Certificates.

[4th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Provisions of the following Acts of Parliament, made in the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, namely, an Act of the Ninth Year, Chapter Twenty-nine, an Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twelve, (Local,) the said Commissioners of Westminster Bridge were empowered to construct a temporary Bridge adjoining Westminster Bridge aforesaid during certain Repairs thereof then contemplated, but no such temporary Bridge has been constructed, and the Plan of repairing the Bridge Bridge* Estate, and the Expenses of maintaining and repairing the said Bridge, together with certain Improvements in the Streets and Roads leading to the same Bridge, also authorized by the said Acts or some of them, have from Time to Time been defrayed by and out of the Rents, Issues, and Profits of the said Estate, or by Sale of Parts thereof by the said Commissioners: And whereas the said Westminster Bridge, and the Stairs, Landings, and Abutments thereof, and also all the Lands and Hereditaments now constituting the Westminster Bridge Estate, are now, under and by virtue of the said Acts or some of them, absolutely vested in the said Commissioners of Westminster Bridge and their Successors, subject only to such Leases or other Interests of or in the same as are now subsisting, and which said Hereditaments are set forth in the First Schedule to this Act: And whereas the said Bridge at Westminster has become insecure, and cannot be effectually repaired, and it is therefore necessary that a new Bridge should be constructed: And whereas it is expedient that the Construction of such new Bridge, and of the necessary and proper Approaches thereto, should be intrusted to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and for that Purpose that the present Bridge, together with all the said Westminster Bridge Estate, should be transferred to and vested in the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings: And whereas, on or before the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings caused to be prepared a Plan of a new Bridge and of the Approaches thereto, and also deposited Copies of such Plan at the respective Offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, and with the Parish Clerks of the Parishes of Saint Margaret Westminster and Saint Mary Lambeth, and at the Parliament Office of the House of Lords, the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and the Office of the Board of Admiralty, and also gave Notice of the Deposit of such Plan as aforesaid to all the Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers of the Property which it would be necessary to take or affect for the Purpose of constructing a new Bridge and Approaches according to such Plan, together with Notice of their Intention to apply to Parliament for an Act to enable them to construct such new Bridge and Approaches accordingly, and the Property proposed to be taken from such Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers is set forth in the Second Schedule to this Act: And whereas since the Deposit of the said Plan as aforesaid the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings have found it expedient to make certain Alterations in the Width and Elevation of the said intended Bridge: And whereas the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings have caused an amended Plan to be made of the said intended Bridge and the Approaches thereto, according to such proposed Alterations as aforesaid, and have deposited Copies of the said amended Plan in the Parliament Office of the House of Lords and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, but the same were not deposited until after the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, such proposed Alterations not having been determined on until after that Day: And whereas such proposed Alterations will not render it necessary to take or affect any Property not included within the Limits of Deviation laid down in the said original Plan:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be

CAP. XLVII.

An Act to provide for the Purchase and Extinguishment of all rights of Common and Lammas and other Commonable Rights over the Site of Battersea Park in the County of Surrey.

[4th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS under and by virtue of the Enactments, Powers, and Provisions contained in the Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Thirty-eight, and the Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Seventy-seven, the Battersea Park Commissioners were authorized and empowered to purchase and hold divers Lands and Hereditaments specified in a Schedule annexed to the first-mentioned Act, situate in Battersea Fields in the Parish of Saint Mary Battersea in the County of Surrey, for the Purpose of forming a public Park there, to be called Battersea Park, and for other Purposes: And whereas, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Acts or One of them, certain of the aforesaid Lands and Hereditaments have been purchased and are now vested in the said Battersea Park Commissioners for the Purposes aforesaid, and the said Commissioners purpose from Time to Time hereafter to purchase such further Portions of the aforesaid Lands and Hereditaments as they may consider requisite for the Purposes aforesaid: And whereas by the first-mentioned Act it was amongst other things enacted, that in all Cases where there should be Occasion to cut through, take, or use for the Purposes aforesaid any Part or Parts of any Commons or Waste Grounds or other Lands or Hereditaments which should be charged with or subject to any Right or Rights of Common, whether of Pasture, Turbary, Estover, or Piscary, or other Easements whatsoever, appendant, appurtenant, or in gross, or whether created or subsisting by Grant, Prescription, Custom, or otherwise howsoever, the Conveyance thereof by any Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or other Person or Persons, having such and the like Estate and Interest of and in the Manor wherein such Lands, Commons, Waste Grounds, or Hereditaments should be situate or (if the same should not be the Waste of any Manor) then having such and the like Estate and Interest of and in the Soil of such Lands, Commons, Wastes, and Hereditaments, as the Body or Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or Persons, who by virtue of the said Act were enabled to sell and convey other Lands and Hereditaments, should be a good and sufficient Conveyance of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of such Waste Grounds or Common or other Lands or Hereditaments for the Purposes aforesaid, as fully and effectually as if every Person having such Right or Rights of Common upon such Common or Waste Ground, Lands, or Hereditaments were seised thereof in Fee Simple in possession, and had joined in and executed such Conveyance, and that the Compensation to be paid for any Right of Common upon any such Common or Waste Ground, Lands, or Hereditaments to be settled in the Manner by the said first-mentioned Act directed should be paid to the Churchwardens of the Parish or respective Parishes in which such Common or Waste Lands should lie, and should be by such Churchwardens applied for such general and public Purposes within such Parishes respectively as a Vestry of such respective Parishes to be convened by such Churchwardens for that Purpose should direct: And whereas the Inhabitants of the said Parish of Saint Mary Battersea, at a Vestry Meeting held on the Eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, unanimously resolved that the Churchwardens should be authorized, on the Part of the Parishioners, in respect of their Common Rights, either as Freeholders, Copyholders, or Tenants, or Parishioners, of all the said Lands named in the Schedule to the first-mentioned Act, to accept the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds by way of Compensation for the Extinguishment of such and all other Rights over all such said Lands: And whereas it was intended by the said Parishioners that the said Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds should include the Purchase or Compensation Money to be paid in respect of all Lammas Rights and other Commonable Rights existing or alleged to exist in, over, or upon all the Lands mentioned in the said Resolution, although not Common or Waste Lands; but it is doubtful whether the Terms of the aforesaid Provisions of the first-mentioned Act include such last-mentioned Lammas and other Commonable Rights: And whereas Doubts are also entertained as to how the Monies to be paid as the Price or Compensation for such Rights of Common and Commonable Rights as aforesaid ought to be paid and applied under the Provisions of the said first-recited Act: And whereas it is just and necessary, for the Purpose of effecting the Purposes of the said Acts, that on Payment of the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds by the said Battersea Park Commissioners all Rights of Common and Commonable Rights whatsoever in, over, or upon all the Lands comprised in the said Schedule to the first-mentioned Act, and which have been purchased as aforesaid, or which shall hereafter be purchased, should be absolutely extinguished; but it is apprehended that the same cannot be completely effected without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

9 & 10 Vict. c. 38.
14 & 15 Vict. c. 77.

Battersea Park Commissioners to pay 1,500*l.* to Churchwardens of St. Mary Battersea, to be applied to such

I. It shall be lawful for the said Battersea Park Commissioners, out of any Monies coming to their Hands applicable to the Purposes of the said Acts, to pay to the Churchwardens for the Time being of the said Parish of Saint Mary Battersea the Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds, to be by such Churchwardens or their Successors applied for such general and public Purposes within the said Parish as a Vestry of the same Parish, to be convened by such Churchwardens for that Purpose, shall direct; and immediately on such Payment all Rights of Common whatsoever, and all Lammas Rights and other Commonable Purposes as a Vestry shall direct, and thereupon all Rights of Common to cease.

Commonable Rights whatsoever existing or claimed by any Body Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, in, upon, or over all or any Part or Parts of the said Lands and Hereditaments specified in the Schedule to the said first-mentioned Act, and already purchased by the said Commissioners, shall absolutely cease and be extinguished; and as regards any other of the said Hereditaments which shall hereafter be purchased, then from the Date of such Purchase such Rights shall also cease and be extinguished, and whether the same be Common or Waste Lands or not.

Receipt of the Churchwardens to be a sufficient Discharge for the 1,500*l.*

II. The Receipt or Receipts in Writing of the Churchwardens for the Time being of the said Parish of Saint Mary Battersea shall be a full and sufficient Discharge to the said Battersea Park Commissioners for the said Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds or any Part thereof, and they shall not be in anywise bound to see to the Application thereof.

Short Title.

III. It shall be sufficient for all Purposes to cite this Act as "The Battersea Park Act, 1853."

[4th August 1853.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies for defraying Your Majesty's Public Expenses, and making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the Duties herein-after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

The Term "Real Property" shall include all Freehold, Copyhold, Customary, Leasehold, and other Hereditaments, and Heritable Property, whether corporeal or incorporeal, in Great Britain and Ireland, except Money secured on Heritable Property in Scotland, and all Estates in any such Hereditaments:

The Term "Personal Property" shall not include Leaseholds, but shall include Money payable under any Engagement, and Money secured on Heritable Property in Scotland, and all other Property not comprised in the preceding Definition of Real Property:

The Term "Property" alone shall include Real Property and Personal Property:

The Term "Succession" shall denote any Property chargeable with Duty under this Act:

The Term "Trustee" shall include an Executor and Administrator, and any Person having or taking on himself the Administration of Property affected by any express or implied Trust:

The Term "Person" shall include a Body Corporate, Company, and Society:

The Term "Legacy Duty Acts" shall denote the Acts now in force for charging Duties on Legacies and Shares of the Personal Estates of deceased Persons.

What Dispositions and Devolutions of Property shall confer Successions.

II. Every past or future Disposition of Property, by reason whereof any Person has or shall become beneficially entitled to any Property or the Income thereof upon the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, either immediately or after any Interval, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive Limitation, and every Devolution by Law of any beneficial Interest in Property, or the Income thereof, upon the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, to any other Person, in possession or expectancy, shall be deemed to have conferred or to confer on the Person entitled by reason of any such Disposition or Devolution a "Succession;" and the Term "Successor" shall denote the Person so entitled; and the Term "Predecessor" shall denote Settlor, Disponer, Testator, Obligor, Ancestor, or other Person from whom the Interest of the Successor is or shall be derived.

Definition of the Terms "Successor," "Predecessor."

Joint Tenants taking by Survivorship to be deemed Successors.

III. Where any Person shall, at or after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, have any Property vested in them jointly, by any Title not conferring on them a Succession, any beneficial Interest in such Property accruing to any of them by Survivorship shall be deemed to be a Succession; and every Person to whom any such Interest shall accrue shall be deemed to be the Successor; and the Person upon whose Death such Accruer shall take place shall be deemed to be the Predecessor; and where any Persons after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act shall take any Succession jointly, they shall pay the Duty, if any, chargeable thereon by this Act in proportion to their respective Interests in the Succession; and any beneficial Interest in such Succession, accruing to any of them by Survivorship, shall be deemed to be a new Succession, derived from the Predecessor from whom the joint Title shall have been derived.

General Powers of Appointment to confer Successions.

IV. Where any Person shall have a general Power of Appointment, under any Disposition of Property taking effect upon the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, over Property, he shall, in the event of his making any Appointment thereunder, be deemed to be entitled, at the Time of his exercising such Power, to the Property or Interest thereby appointed as a Succession derived from the Donor of the Power; and where any Person shall have a limited Power of Appointment, under a Disposition taking effect, upon any such Death, over Property, any Person taking any Property by the Exercise of such Power shall be deemed to take the same as a Succession derived from the Person creating the Power as Predecessor.

V. Where

Extinction of determinable Charges to confer Successions.

V. Where any Property shall at or after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act be subject to any Charge, Estate, or Interest, determinable by the Death of any Person, or at any Period ascertainable only by reference to Death, the Increase of Benefit accruing to any Person or Persons upon the Extinction or Determination of such Charge, Estate, or Interest shall be deemed to be a Succession accruing to the Person, or the Persons if more than One, then entitled beneficially to the Property or the Income thereof, according to his or their respective Estates or Interests therein, or beneficial Enjoyment thereof; and the Person or Persons from whom such Successor or Successors respectively shall have derived Title to the Property so charged shall be deemed to be the Predecessor or Predecessors, as the Case may be.

Persons now beneficially entitled to Real Property subject to Leases for Life, not liable to Duty.

VI. Provided that no Person entitled, at the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, to the immediate Reversion in any Real Property expectant upon the Determination of any Lease for Life or for Years determinable on Life, shall be chargeable with Duty in respect of such Determination, in the event of the same occurring in his Lifetime.

Dispositions accompanied by the Reservation of a Benefit to the Grantor, &c. to confer Successions.

VII. Where any Disposition of Property, not being a bonâ fide Sale, and not conferring an Interest expectant on Death on the Person in whose Favour the same shall be made, shall be accompanied by the Reservation or Assurance of or Contract for any Benefit to the Grantor, or any other Person, for any Term of Life or for any Period ascertainable only by reference to Death, such Disposition shall be deemed to confer at the Time appointed for the Determination of such Benefit an Increase of beneficial Interest in such Property, as a Succession equal in annual Value to the yearly Amount or yearly Value of the Benefit so reserved, assured, or contracted for, on the Person in whose Favour such Disposition shall be made.

Dispositions to take effect at Periods depending on Death, or made for evading Duty, to confer Successions.

VIII. Where any Disposition of Property shall be made to take effect at a Period ascertainable only by reference to the Date of the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, such Disposition shall be deemed to confer a Succession on the Person in whose Favour the same shall be made; and where any Disposition of Property shall purport to take effect presently, or under such Circumstances as not to confer a Succession, but by the Effect or in consequence of any Engagement, secret Trust, or Arrangement capable of being enforced in a Court of Law or Equity, the beneficial Ownership of such Property shall not bonâ fide pass according to such Disposition, but shall in fact devolve to any Person on Death, or at some Period ascertainable only by reference to Death, then such last-mentioned Person shall be deemed to acquire the Property so passing as a Succession derived from the Person making the Disposition as the Predecessor; and where any Court of competent Jurisdiction shall declare any Disposition to have been fraudulent and made for the Purpose of evading the Duty imposed by this Act, it shall be lawful for such Court to declare a Succession to have been conferred on such Person at such Time and to such an Extent as such Court shall think just; and such last-mentioned Person shall be deemed to have taken a Succession accordingly derived from the Person making such Disposition as Predecessor.

Duties to be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

IX. The Duties herein-after imposed shall be considered as Stamp Duties, and shall be under the Care and Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, herein-after called "The Commissioners;" who, by themselves and their Officers, shall have the same Powers and Authorities for the Collection, Recovery, and Management thereof, as are by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter One, or by any other Act or Acts, vested in them for the Collection, Recovery, and Management of any Stamp Duties; and shall provide proper Stamps for denoting the Rate per Centum of the Duties payable under this Act; and shall have all other Powers and Authorities requisite for carrying this Act into execution.

Duties on Successions.

X. There shall be levied and paid to Her Majesty in respect of every such Succession as aforesaid, according to the Value thereof, the following Duties; (that is to say,)

Where the Successor shall be the lineal Issue or lineal Ancestor of the Predecessor, a Duty at the Rate of One Pound per Centum upon such Value:

Where the Successor shall be a Brother or Sister, or a Descendant of a Brother or Sister of the Predecessor, a Duty at the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum upon such Value:

Where the Successor shall be a Brother or Sister of the Grandfather or Grandmother, or a Descendant of the Brother or Sister of the Grandfather or Grandmother of the Predecessor, a Duty at the Rate of Six Pounds per Centum upon such Value:

Where the Successor shall be in any other Degree of collateral Consanguinity to the Predecessor than is herein-before described, or shall be a Stranger in Blood to him, a Duty at the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum upon such Value.

Provision as to married Persons chargeable with Succession or Legacy Duties.

XI. Where any Person chargeable with Duty under this Act in respect of any Succession, or chargeable with Duty under the Legacy Duty Acts in respect of any Legacy bequeathed to him or her by a Testator dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, or in respect of the Personal Estate of any Person dying after the same Period, shall have been married to any Wife or Husband of nearer Consanguinity than himself or herself to the Predecessor, Testator, or deceased Person;

Person, then the Person taking such Succession, Legacy, or Personal Estate shall pay in respect thereof the same Rate of Duty only as such his or her Wife or Husband would have been chargeable with if she or he had taken the same.

What Duties payable when the Successor is also the Predecessor.

XII. Where any Person shall take a Succession under a Disposition made by himself, then, if at the Date of such Disposition he shall have been entitled to the Property comprised in the Succession expectantly on the Death of any Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, and such Person shall have died during the Continuance of such Disposition, he shall be chargeable with Duty on his Succession at the same Rate as he would have been chargeable with if no such Disposition had been made; but a Successor shall not in any other Case be chargeable with Duty upon a Succession taken under a Disposition made by himself, and no Person shall be chargeable with Duty upon the Extinction or Determination of any Charge, Estate, or Interest created by himself, unless at the Date of the Creation thereof he shall have been entitled to the Property subjected thereto expectantly on the Death of some Person dying after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act.

Provision as to joint Predecessors.

XIII. Where the Successor shall derive his Succession from more Predecessors than One, and the proportional Interest derived from each of them shall not be distinguishable, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to agree with the Successor as to the Duty payable; but if no such Agreement shall be made, the Successor shall be deemed to have derived his Succession in equal Proportions from each Predecessor, and shall be chargeable with Duty accordingly.

Duty on transmitted Successions.

XIV. Where the Interest of any Successor in any Personal Property shall, before he shall have become entitled thereto in possession, have passed by reason of Death to any other Successor or Successors, then One Duty only shall be paid in respect of such Interest, and shall be due from the Successor who shall first become entitled thereto in possession; but such Duty shall be at the highest Rate which, if every such Successor had been subject to Duty, would have been payable by any One of them.

Duties payable in respect of transferred Interests.

XV. Where, at the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, any reversionary Property expectant on Death shall be vested, by Alienation or other derivative Title, in any Person other than the Person who shall have been originally entitled thereto under any such Disposition or Devolution as is mentioned in the Second Section of this Act, then the Person in whom such Property shall be so vested shall be chargeable with Duty in respect thereof as a Succession at the same Time and at the same Rate as the Person so originally entitled would have been chargeable with if no such Alienation had been made or derivative Title created; and where, after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, any Succession shall, before the Successor shall have become entitled thereto or to the Income thereof in possession, have become vested by Alienation or by any Title not conferring a new Succession in any other Person, then the Duty payable in respect thereof shall be paid at the same Rate and Time as the same would have been payable if no such Alienation had been made or derivative Title created; and where the Title to any Succession shall be accelerated by the Surrender or Extinction of any prior Interests, then the Duty thereon shall be payable at the same Time and in the same Manner as such Duty would have been payable if no such Acceleration had taken place.

Succession subject to Trusts for charitable or public Purposes chargeable with Duty.

XVI. Where Property shall become subject to a Trust for any charitable or public Purposes, under any past or future Disposition, which, if made in favour of an Individual, would confer on him a Succession, there shall be payable in respect of such Property, upon its becoming subject to such Trusts, a Duty at the Rate of Ten Pounds per Centum upon the Amount or principal Value of such Property; and it shall be lawful for the Trustee of any such Property to raise the Amount of any Duty due in respect thereof, with all reasonable Expenses, upon the Security of the Charity Property, at Interest, with Power for him to give effectual Discharges for the Money so raised.

Provision for Life Policies and certain Post Obit Bonds.

XVII. No Policy of Insurance on the Life of any Person shall create the Relation of Predecessor and Successor between the Insurers and the Assured, or between the Insurers and any Assignee of the Assured, and no Bond or Contract made by any Person bonâ fide for valuable Consideration in Money or Money's Worth, for the Payment of Money or Money's Worth after the Death of any other Person, shall create the Relation of Predecessor and Successor between the Person making such Bond or Contract and the Person to or with whom the same shall be made; but any Disposition or Devolution of the Monies payable under such Policy, Bond, or Contract, if otherwise such as in itself to create a Succession within the Provisions of this Act, shall be deemed to confer a Succession.

Exemptions.

XVIII. Where the whole Succession or Successions derived from the same Predecessor and passing upon any Death to any Person or Persons shall not amount in Money or Principal Value to the Sum of One hundred Pounds, no Duty shall be payable under this Act in respect thereof or of any Portion thereof; and no Duty shall be payable under this Act upon any Succession, which, as estimated according to the Provisions of this Act, shall be of less Value than Twenty Pounds in the whole, or upon any Monies applied to the Payment of the Duty on any Succession according to any Trust for that Purpose, or by any Person in respect of a Succession, who, if the same were a Legacy bequeathed to him by the Predecessor, would be exempted from the Payment of Duty in respect thereof under the Legacy Duty Acts; and no Person shall be charged with Duty under this Act in respect of any Interest surrendered by him or extinguished before the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act; and no Person charged with the Duties on Legacies and Shares of Personal Estate under the Legacy Duty Acts, in respect respect of any Property subject to such Duties, shall be charged also with the Duty granted by this Act in respect of the same Acquisition of the same Property.

Leasehold Estates not to be charged with Legacy Duty as Personal Estate.

XIX. No Legatee or other Person shall, after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, be chargeable under the Legacy Duty Acts with Duty, not then already due, in respect of any Leasehold Hereditaments of any Testator or deceased Person, as belonging to the Personal Estate of the Testator or Deceased.

Duties to be paid on Successor becoming entitled in possession, but in case of outstanding Interests, on Determination thereof.

XX. The Duty imposed by this Act shall be paid at the Time when the Successor, or any Person in his Right or on his Behalf, shall become entitled in possession to his Succession, or to the Receipt of the Income and Profits thereof; except that if there shall be any prior Charge, Estate, or Interest, not created by the Successor himself, upon or in the Succession, by reason whereof the Successor shall not be presently entitled to the full Enjoyment or Value thereof, the Duty in respect of the increased Value accruing upon the Determination of such Charge, Estate, or Interest shall, if not previously paid, compounded for, or commuted, be paid at the Time of such Determination; and except that in case of an Annuity, or Property hereby made chargeable as an Annuity, the Duties shall be paid by such Instalments as are herein-after directed or referred to; provided that no Duty shall be payable upon the Determination of any Lease purporting at the Date thereof to be a Lease at Rackrent, in respect of the Increase accruing to the Successor upon such Determination.

The Interest of a Successor in Real Property to be considered as an Annuity.

XXI. The Interest of every Successor, except as herein provided, in Real Property, shall be considered to be of the Value of an Annuity equal to the annual Value of such Property, after making such Allowances as are herein-after directed, and payable from the Date of his becoming entitled thereto in possession, or to the Receipt of the Income or Profits thereof during the Residue of his Life, or for any less Period during which he shall be entitled thereto; and every such Annuity, for the Purposes of this Act, shall be valued according to the Tables in the Schedule annexed to this Act; and the Duty chargeable thereon shall be paid by Eight equal half-yearly Instalments, the First of such Instalments to be paid at the Expiration of Twelve Months next after the Successor shall have become entitled to the beneficial Enjoyment of the Real Property in respect whereof the same shall be payable, and the Seven following Instalments at half-yearly Intervals of Six Months each, to be computed from the Day on which the First Instalment shall have become due, provided that if the Successor shall die before all such Instalments shall have become due, then any Instalments not due at his Decease shall cease to be payable, except in the Case of a Successor who shall have been competent to dispose by Will of a continuing Interest in such Property, in which Case the Instalments unpaid at his Death shall be a continuing Charge on such Interest, in exoneration of his other Property, and shall be payable by the Owner for the Time being of such Interest.

Rules for valuing Lands, Houses, &c.

XXII. In estimating the annual Value of Lands used for Agricultural Purposes, Houses, Buildings, Tithes, Teinds, Rentcharges, and other Property yielding or capable of yielding Income not of a fluctuating Character, an Allowance shall be made of all necessary Outgoings.

Rule as to Timber.

XXIII. Where Timber, Trees, or Wood, not being Coppice or Underwood, shall be comprised in any Succession, the Successor shall be chargeable with Duty upon his Interest in the net Monies, after deducting all necessary Outgoings for the Year, which shall from Time to Time be received from any Sales of such Timber, Trees, or Wood, and shall account for and pay the same yearly; provided that no Duty shall be payable on the net Monies received from the Sale of Timber, Trees, or Wood in any One Year unless such net Mones shall exceed the Sum of Ten Pounds; provided, that if the Successor shal be desirous of commuting the Duty, and shall deliver to the Commissioners an Estimate of the ne Monies obtainable by him from the Sale of such Timber, Trees, and Wood as may, in a prudent Course of Management of the Property, be felled by such Successor during his Life, the Commissioners, if satisfied with such Estimate, shall accept the same and assess the Duty accordingly.

Rule as to Advowsons.

XXIV. A Successor shall not be chargeable with Duty in respect of any Advowson or Church Patronage comprised in his Succession, unless the same, or some Right of Presentation, or some other Interest in or out of such Advowson or Church Patronage, shall be disposed of by or in concert with him for Money or Money's Worth, in which Case he shall be chargeable with Duty upon the Amount or Value of the Money or Money's Worth, for which the same, or any such Presentation or Interest, shall be so disposed of at the Time of such Disposal.

Rule as to Property subject to beneficial Leases.

XXV. Where a Successor, entitled to any Real Property, subject to any Lease by reason whereof he shall not be presently entitled to the full Enjoyment thereof, shall not have paid Duty in respect of the full yearly Value of such Property, he shall be chargeable with Duty upon his Interest in any Fine or Grassum or other Consideration which may be received during his Life for the Renewal of any such Lease, or the Grant of any Reversionary Lease of the same Property.

Rule as to Manors, Mines, &c.

XXVI. The yearly Value of any Manor, open Mine, or other Real Property of a fluctuating yearly Income shall either be calculated upon the average Profits or Income derived therefrom, after deducting all necessary Outgoings, during such a Number of preceding Years as shall be agreed upon for this Purpose between the Commissioners and the Successor, before the first Payment of Duty on the Succession shall have become due, or, if no such Period shall be agreed upon, then the principal Value of such Property shall be ascertained, and the annual Value thereof shall be considered to be equal to Interest calculated at the Rate of Three Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Amount of such principal Value.

 XXVII. Where

Duty payable by Corporations, &c. taking Real Estates.

XXVII. Where any Body Corporate, Company, or Society shall become entitled, as Successors, to any Real Property, the Duty in respect thereof shall be assessed upon the principal Value of such Property, but shall be payable by such Instalments, at such Times, and in such Manner as the same would be payable if assessed in respect of Property devolving on a Successor in Fee Simple; and it shall be lawful for such Body Corporate, Company, or Society, or any Trustee thereof, to raise the Amount of any Duty due in respect of their Succession upon the Security thereof, at Interest, with Power for them to give effectual Discharges for the Money so raised.

Allowance for Fines, &c. paid by Successor.

XXVIII. If a Successor, or any Person on his Behalf, upon becoming entitled to any Copyhold or other Real Property, shall be subject to any Fines, Casualties of Superiority, Compositions, Reliefs, or Charges incident to the Tenure thereof, and due in respect of his Succession, he shall be entitled to have a Deduction allowed to him of the Amount of such Fines, Casualties, Compositions, Reliefs, or Charges from the assessable Value of his Interest in such Copyhold or other Real Property.

Real Property directed to be sold to be charged as Personalty.

XXIX. The Interest of any Successor in Monies to arise from the Sale of Real Property under any Trust for the Sale thereof, so far as the same shall not be chargeable with Duty under the Legacy Duty Acts, shall be deemed to be Personal Property chargeable with Duty under this Act; provided that where such Monies shall be subject to any Trust for the Re-investment thereof in the Purchase of other Real Property, to which the Successor would not be absolutely entitled, such Monies shall be deemed to be Real Property, and for the Purpose of this Act each Successor's Interest therein shall be considered to be of the Value of an Annuity, payable during his Life, or for any less Period during which he shall be entitled, equal in Amount to the annual Produce of the actual Trust Property at the Time of his becoming entitled in possession, whether the same shall then be the Real Property subject to the Trust or Direction for Sale, or any Property purchased in substitution for it, or any intermediate Investment of the Produce of the Sale of the original Property.

Personal Property to be invested in Real Property how to be charged.

XXX. The Interest of any Successor in Personal Property subject to any Trust for the Investment thereof in the Purchase of Real Property to which the Successor would be absolutely entitled shall, so far as the same shall not be chargeable with Duty under the Legacy Duty Acts, be chargeable with Duty under this Act as Personal Property; and Personal Property subject to any Trust for the Investment thereof in the Purchase of Real Property to which the Successor would not be absolutely entitled shall, so far as the same shall not be chargeable with Duty under the Legacy Duty Acts, be chargeable with Duty under this Act as Real Property; and for the Purposes of this Act each Successor's Interest therein shall be considered to be of the Value of an Annuity, payable during his Life, or for any less Period during which he shall be entitled, equal in Amount to the annual Produce of the actual Trust Property at the Time of his becoming entitled in possession, whether the same shall be the Real Property directed to be purchased, or any intermediate Investment of the Personal Property directed to be invested in such Purchase.

Annuities under this Act and Legacy Duty Acts to be valued according to the Tables annexed to this Act.

XXXI. Where it shall be required to calculate, for the Purposes either of this Act or of the Legacy Duty Acts, the Value of any Annuity, or of any Interest chargeable with Duty as an Annuity, such Value shall, after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, be calculated according to the Tables in the Schedule annexed to this Act, and not according to the Tables in the Schedule annexed to the Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty-two, and such Annuity or Interest shall be chargeable with Duty accordingly.

Provisions as to the Assessment of Personalty.

XXXII. The following Provisions relating to the Assessment and Payment of Duty on Personal Estate, and the Exemption thereof from Duty in certain Cases, namely, the Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Fourteenth, and Twenty-third Sections of the said Act of the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty-two, shall be applicable to the Personal Property comprised in any Succession, and to the Assessment and Payment of Duty thereon, as if such Personal Property were a Legacy bequeathed by the Predecessor to the Successor, and were subject to the said Provisions, and as if the Tables in the said Act referred to were the Tables in the Schedules annexed to this Act.

Allowance to Donee of general Power of Appointment.

XXXIII. Where the Donee of a general Power of Appointment shall become chargeable with Duty in respect of the Property appointed by him under such Power, he shall be allowed to deduct from the Duty so payable any Duty he may have already paid in respect of any limited Interest taken by him in such Property.

What Allowance to be made for Incumbrances.

XXXIV. In estimating the Value of a Succession no Allowance shall be made in respect of any Incumbrance thereon created or incurred by the Successor, not made in execution of a prior special Power of Appointment, but an Allowance shall be made in respect of all other Incumbrances, and also in respect of any Monies which the Successor may previously to his Possession have laid out in the substantial Repairs or permanent Improvement of Real Property comprised in his Succession; provided that upon any Successor becoming entitled to Real Property subject to any prior principal Charge, an Allowance shall be made to him in respect only of the yearly Sums payable by way of Interest or otherwise on such Charge as reducing the annual Value pro tanto of such Real Property.

No Allowance to be made for contingent Incumbrances, unless they take effect.

XXXV. In estimating the Value of a Succession no Allowance shall be made in respect of any contingent Incumbrance thereon; but in the event of such Incumbrance taking effect as an actual Burden on the Interest of the Successor, he shall be entitled to a Return of a proportionate Amount of the Duty so paid by him in respect of the Amount or Value of the Incumbrance when taking effect.

XXXVI. In

XXXVI. In estimating the Value of a Succession no Allowance shall be made in respect of any Contingency upon the happening of which the Property may pass to some other Person; but in the event of the same so passing the Successor shall be entitled to a Return of so much of the Duty paid by him as will reduce the same to the Amount which would have been payable by him if such Duty had been assessed in respect of the actual Duration or Extent of his Interest. Duty on Successions to be calculated without regard to Contingencies.

XXXVII. Where a Successor shall not have obtained the whole of his Succession at the Time of the Duty becoming payable, he shall be chargeable only with Duty on the Value of the Property or Benefit from Time to Time obtained by him; and whenever any Duty shall have been paid on account of any Succession, and it shall afterwards be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners that such Duty, not being due from the Person paying the same, was paid by Mistake, or was paid in respect of Property which the Successor shall have been unable to recover, or from or of which he shall have been evicted or deprived by any superior Title, or that for any other Reason it ought to be refunded, the Commissioners shall thereupon refund the same to the Person entitled thereto. Provision for Allowance or Return of Duty.

XXXVIII. Where any Successor upon taking a Succession shall be bound to relinquish or be deprived of any other Property, the Commissioners shall, upon the Computation of the assessable Value of his Succession, make such an Allowance to him as may be just in respect of the Value of such Property. Allowance to be made to Successor in respect of relinquished Property.

XXXIX. Where, in the Opinion of the Commissioners, any Succession shall be of such a Nature, or so disposed or circumstanced, that the Value thereof shall not be fairly ascertainable under any of the preceding Directions, or where, from the Complication of Circumstances affecting the Value of a Succession, or affecting the Assessment or Recovery of the Duty thereon, the Commissioners shall think it expedient to exercise this present Authority, it shall be lawful for them to compound the Duty payable on the Succession upon such Terms as they shall think fit, and to give Discharges to the Successor, upon Payment of Duty according to such Composition; and it shall be lawful for them, in any special Cases in which they may think it expedient so to do, to enlarge the Time for Payment of any Duty. Power for Commissioners to compound Duties.

XL. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners to receive any Duty tendered to them in advance, and to allow Discount thereon at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, or at such other Rate as may from Time to Time be directed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and no Peason, by reason of his having made any Payment of Duty in advance, shall be prejudiced in his Right to have any Repayment of Duty made to him to which he may become entitled under any of the Provisions of this Act. Power of Commissioners to receive Duty in advance.

XLI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in their Discretion, upon Application made by any Person who shall be entitled to a Succession in expectancy, to commute the Duty presumptively payable in respect of such Succession for a certain Sum to be presently paid, and for assessing the Amount which shall be so payable they shall cause a present Value to be set upon such presumptive Duty, regard being had to the Contingencies affecting the Liability to such Duty, and the Interest of Money involved in such Calculation being reckoned at the Rate for the Time being allowed by the Commissioners in respect of Duties paid in advance; and upon the Receipt of such certain Sum they shall give Discharges to the Successor accordingly. Power for Commissioners to commute future Duties.

XLII. The Duty imposed by this Act shall be a First Charge on the Interest of the Successor, and of all Persons claiming in his Right, in all the Real Property in respect whereof such Duty shall be assessed; and such Duty shall also be a First Charge on the Interest of the Successor in the Personal Property in respect whereof the same shall be assessed, while the same shall remain in the Ownership or Control of the Successor, or of any Trustee for him, or of his Guardian or Committee, or Tutor or Curator, or of the Husband of any Wife who shall be the Successor; and the said Duty shall be a Debt due to the Crown from the Successor, having, in the Case of Real Property comprised in any Succession, Priority over all Charges and Interests created by him, but such Duty shall not charge or affect any other Real Property of the Successor than the Property comprised in such Succession; provided, that where any settled Real Property comprised in a Succession shall be subject to any Power of Sale, Exchange, or Partition, exercisable with the Consent of the Successor, or by the Successor with the Consent of another Person, he shall not be disqualified by the Charge of Duty on his Succession from effectually authorizing by his Consent the Exercise of such Power, or exercising any Power with proper Consent, as the Case may be, and in such Case the Duty shall be charged substitutively upon the Successor's Interest, in all Real Property acquired in substitution for the Real Property before comprised in the Succession, and in the meantime upon his Interest also in all Monies arising from the Exercise of any such Power, and in all Investments of such Monies. Duty to be a First Charge on Property.

XLIII. The Commissioners shall, at the Request of any Successor, or any Person claiming in his Right, accept or cause to be made so many separate Assessments of the Duty payable in respect of the Interest of the Successor in any separate Properties, or in defined Portions of the same Property, as shall be reasonably required; and in such Cases the respective Properties shall be chargeable only with the Amount of Duty separately assessed in respect thereof; and it shall be lawful also for the Commissioners, by their Certificates, to be issued in such Form as they shall think fit, from Time to Time to declare that any Duties already assessed, whether collectively or distributively, in respect of any Succession, shall thenceforth be charged, as to any unpaid Instalments, according to any further Distribution thereof, upon separate Parts only of the Property in respect of which such Assessment shall have been made, Provision for the separate Assessments of Properties.

made, in which Case the Charge of such Duties shall be thenceforth limited according to such further Distribution.

What Persons accountable for Duty.

XLIV. The following Persons, besides the Successor, shall be personally accountable to Her Majesty for the Duty payable in respect of any Succession, but to the Extent only of the Property or Funds actually received or disposed of by them respectively after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act; that is to say, every Trustee, Guardian, Committee, Tutor, or Curator, or Husband in whom respectively any Property, or the Management of any Property, subject to such Duty, shall be vested, and every Person in whom the same shall be vested by Alienation or other derivative Title at the Time of the Succession becoming an Interest in possession; and all such Trustees, Guardians, Committees, Tutors, Curators, Husbands, and Persons shall be authorized to compound or pay in advance or commute any Duty, and retain out of the Property, subject to any such Duty, the Amount thereof, or to raise such Amount, and the Expenses incident thereto, at Interest on the Security of such Property, with Power to give effectual Discharges for the same, and such Security shall have Priority over any Charge or Incumbrance created by the Successor; and in the event of the Nonpayment of such Duty as aforesaid every Person hereby made accountable shall be a Debtor to Her Majesty in the Amount of the unpaid Duty for which he shall be so accountable.

Notice of Succession to be given to the Commissioners, and a Return of the Property made.

XLV. The Persons hereby made accountable for the Payment of Duty in respect of any Succession, or some of them, shall, in the Case of Personal Property, at the Time of the first Payment, Delivery, Retainer, Satisfaction, or other Discharge of the same or any Part thereof to or for the Successor or any Person in his Right, and in the Case of Real Property when any Duty in respect thereof shall first become payable, give Notice to the Commissioners or to their Officers of their Liability to such Duty, and shall at the same Time deliver to the Commissioners or to their Officers a full and true Account of the Property for the Duty whereon they shall respectively be accountable, and of the Value thereof, and of the Deductions claimed by them, together with the Names of the Successor and Predecessor, and their Relation to each other, and all such other Particulars as shall be necessary or proper for enabling the Commissioners fully and correctly to ascertain the Duties due; and the Commissioners, if satisfied with such Account and Estimate as originally delivered, or with any Amendments that may be made therein upon their Requisition, may assess the Succession Duty on the Footing of such Account and Estimate; but it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if dissatisfied with such Account and Estimate, to cause an Account and Estimate to be taken by any Person or Persons to be appointed by themselves for that Purpose, and to assess the Duty on the Footing of such last-mentioned Account and Estimate, subject to Appeal, as herein-after provided; and if the Duty so assessed shall exceed the Duty assessable according to the Return made to the Commissioners, and with which they shall have been dissatisfied, and if there shall be no Appeal against such Assessment, then it shall be in the Discretion of the Commissioners, having regard to the Merits of each Case, to charge the whole or any Part of the Expenses incident to the taking of such last-mentioned Account and Estimate on the Interest of the Successor in respect whereof the Duty shall be due, in increase of such Duty, and to recover the same forthwith accordingly; and if there shall be an Appeal against such last-mentioned Assessment, then the Payment of such Expenses shall be in the Discretion of the Court of Appeal herein-after appointed.

Penalty on not giving Notices of Succession.

XLVI. If any Person required to give any such Notice or deliver such Account as aforesaid shall wilfully neglect to do so at the prescribed Period, he shall be liable to pay to Her Majesty a Sum equal to Ten Pounds per Centum upon the Amount of Duty payable by him, or in the Case of a Succession chargeable with a higher Rate of Duty than One Pound per Centum upon the Value thereof, upon such less Sum as such Duty, if assessable at the Rate of One Pound per Centum upon the Value of the Succession, would amount to, and a like Penalty for every Month after the First Month during which such Neglect shall continue; and if any Person liable under this Act to pay any Duty shall, after such Duty shall have been finally ascertained, wilfully neglect to do so within Twenty-one Days, he shall also be liable to pay to Her Majesty a Sum equal to Ten Pounds per Centum upon the Amount of Duty so unpaid, or upon such less Sum as such Duty, if assessable at the Rate of One Pound per Centum on the Value of the Succession, would amount to, and a like Penalty for every Month after the First Month during which such Neglect shall continue.

Proceeding if Return not made.

XLVII. If any accountable Party required by the Commissioners to deliver any such Account as aforesaid shall make default in doing so, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to sue, out of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as they shall think expedient, according to the Circumstances of the Case, and for such Court to issue, a Writ of Summons in such Form as the Judges of such Court shall from Time to Time frame, commanding the Party so in default to deliver such Account within such Period as may be appointed in the Writ, or to show Cause to the contrary, and on Cause being shown such Order shall be made as shall be just.

Power to enforce Returns from Executors and Administrators.

XLVIII. The Commissioners shall for the Purposes of the Legacy Duty Acts be empowered to require and enforce the Delivery of Accounts from Executors, Administrators, and Trustees of Property and Legatees chargeable with Duty under such Acts, and for the Duty whereon they shall be accountable, in the same Manner as they are by the last preceding Section of this Act empowered to require and enforce the Delivery of Accounts for the Purposes of this Act.

XLIX. Every

XLIX. Every Person who under the Provisions of this Act may deliver any Account or Estimate of the Property comprised in any Succession shall, if required by the Commissioners, produce before them such Books and Documents in the Custody or Control of such Person, so far as the same relate to such Account or Estimate, as may be capable of affording any necessary Information for the Purpose of ascertaining such Property and the Duty payable thereon; and the Commissioners may, without Payment of any Fee, inspect and take Copies of any public Book; but all such Information shall be deemed to be confidential, and the Commissioners shall not disclose the same, or the Contents of any Document or Book, to any Person, otherwise than for the Purposes of this Act.

Power for accountable Party to appeal.

L. It shall be lawful for any accountable Party dissatisfied with the Assessment of the Commissioners, upon giving, within Twenty-one Days after the Date of such Assessment, Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of his Intention to appeal against such Assessment, and a Statement of the Grounds of such Appeal, such Statement to be furnished within the further Period of Thirty Days, to appeal by Petition accordingly to Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, Scotland, or Ireland, according to the Place in which the Appellant shall be resident; and every such Court, or any Judge thereof sitting in Chambers, shall have Jurisdiction to hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal and the Costs thereof, with Power to direct, for the Purposes of such Appeal, any Inquiry, Valuation, or Report to be made by any Officer of the Court, or other Person, as such Court or Judge may think fit: Provided, that where the Sum in dispute in respect of Duty on such Assessment does not exceed Fifty Pounds, the accountable Party may, having given Notice of Appeal and delivered a Statement of the Grounds thereof as herein-before directed, appeal to the Judge of the County Court in England, the Sheriff Court in Scotland, or the Assistant Barrister's Court in Ireland, for the District, County, or Division in which the Appellant shall be resident, or the Property be situate; and every such Judge shall have Jurisdiction to hear and determine the Matter of such last-mentioned Appeal, with the like Power and Authority as are by this Section given to a Judge of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

LII. Every Receipt and Certificate purporting to be in discharge of the whole Duty payable for the Time being in respect of any Succession or any Part thereof, shall exonerate a bonâ fide Purchaser for valuable Consideration, and without Notice, from such Duty, notwithstanding any Suppression or Mis-statement in the Account upon the Footing whereof the same may have been assessed, or any Insufficiency of such Assessment; and no bonâ fide Purchaser of Property for valuable Consideration under a Title not appearing to confer a Succession shall be subject to any Duty with which such Property may be chargeable under the Provisions of this Act, by reason of any extrinsic Circumstances of which he shall not have had Notice at the Time of such Purchase.

CAP. LII.

An Act to extend the Time for constructing a new Street from Spitalfields to Shoreditch, and to amend the Acts relating thereto. [4th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS by the Thirty-fourth Chapter of the Statutes made in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her present Majesty, certain Powers were vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to enable them to construct a new Street from Spitalfields to Shoreditch in the County of Middlesex, and by the said Act the said Commissioners were authorized to purchase and take certain Hereditaments in the Schedule to the said Act mentioned: And whereas the Powers of the said Act were enlarged by another Act, being Chapter One hundred and nine of the Statutes passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty: And whereas under and by virtue of the Provisions of the Forty-second Chapter of the Statutes made in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her said Majesty, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings are now substituted for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings for the Purposes of the said recited Acts: And whereas the Hereditaments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act are Part of the Hereditaments which by the said Two first-recited Acts were authorized to be purchased for the Purpose of such new Street, but which have not yet been purchased; and it is expedient that the Time for purchasing or taking the same should be extended, and that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings should have such further Powers as are after

13 & 14 Vict. c. 109.

14 & 15 Vict. c. 42.

'after mentioned:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

CAP. LIII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankruptcy in Scotland. [4th August 1853.]

2 & 3 Vict. c. 41.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Sequestration of the Estates of Bankrupts in Scotland; and it is expedient that the said Act be in some respects altered and amended, and that further Provision be made for the due Management and more speedy Distribution of the Estates of Bankrupts under Sequestration in Scotland:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Interim Factor to be named by the Lord Ordinary, and to take immediate Possession of Bankrupt's Estate.

I. The Interim Factor, in place of being elected, as at present, shall be appointed by the Lord Ordinary by whom Sequestration shall be awarded, or by the Sheriff of the County, upon a Remit to that Effect by the Lord Ordinary; and such Interim Factor shall as soon as may be after his Appointment take possession of the Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, and of his Title Deeds, Books, Bills, Vouchers, and other Papers and Documents, and also make up an Inventory of such Estate and Effects, and a Valuation showing the estimated Value and the annual Rental or Revenue thereof; and every such Interim Factor shall find Caution for his Intromissions to such Amount as the Lord Ordinary, or the Sheriff, where such Factor shall be appointed by the Sheriff, shall fix; and on such Caution being so found and received such Interim Factor shall be entitled to act, and a certified Copy of the Interlocutor containing his Appointment shall be equivalent to a formal Extract thereof; and such Interim Factor shall be entitled to make such Arrangements for the carrying on of the Trade of the Bankrupt as he may think beneficial for the Estate.

Deliverance awarding Sequestration to appoint Meeting to elect Trustee.

II. The Deliverance awarding Sequestration shall appoint a Meeting of the Creditors, to be held at a specified Hour on a specified Day, being not earlier than Twelve nor later than Twenty-one Days from the Date of such Deliverance, to elect a Trustee or Trustees in succession, and Commissioners, and to do the other Acts provided by the said recited Act to be done at the Meeting for electing a Trustee.

Not to be imperative on Lord Ordinary to grant personal Protection.

III. It shall not be imperative upon the Lord Ordinary, when awarding Sequestration, to grant to the Debtor or Partners of the Company against whom or which Sequestration is awarded a Warrant of Protection against Arrest or Imprisonment for Civil Debt until the Meeting of the Creditors for the Election of Trustee, but the Lord Ordinary may, while awarding Sequestration, refuse to grant such Warrant of Protection; and every such Warrant of Protection which may be granted in any Sequestration that shall not be advertised in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes in Terms of the said recited Act within One Week after the Date of such Sequestration shall be ineffectual, and incapable of being pleaded in Bar of personal Diligence: Provided always, that, notwithstanding the Lord Ordinary shall refuse to grant Interim Warrant of Protection as aforesaid, it shall be competent to the Creditors, on the Occasion of their Meeting to elect a Trustee, or at the Meeting after the Examination of the Bankrupt, or at any Meeting called for the Purpose of receiving an Offer of Composition, to resolve that personal Protection ought to be granted to the Bankrupt for such Time as they may think fit, and the Trustee shall thereupon apply to the Sheriff, who shall grant the Protection.

Deliverance of Sheriff as to the Election of Trustee, final.

IV. The Deliverance of the Sheriff or Sheriff Substitute, declaring the Person or Persons elected to be Trustee or Trustees in succession, shall be final, and in no Case subject to Review in any Court or in any Manner whatever.

Trustee to send Circular to Creditors.

V. It shall be the Duty of the Trustee, immediately after the Examination of the Bankrupt, to notify, by circular Letter transmitted through the Post Office to every Creditor mentioned in the State of Affairs which by the said recited Act is directed to be made up by the Bankrupt, the Period within which Claims should be lodged.

Certain Provisions repealed.

VI. All Provisions of the said recited Act requiring any Creditor to specify separately in his Oath or Claim for his Debt the Amount of any Interest due thereon, or of any Interest deducted therefrom, or to specify any accumulated Sum of Principal and Interest, are hereby repealed.

Errors in framing Oath and Claim may be corrected.

VII. Where it shall appear to the Sheriff or to the Trustee that the Oath and Claim of any Person, produced with a view to voting or to ranking and drawing a Dividend on the Sequestration, is not framed in the Manner required by the said recited Act, the Sheriff or the Trustee, as the Case may be, shall call upon such Person, or his Procurator or Mandatory, to rectify his Oath and Claim, pointing out to him wherein it is defective; and unless such Person shall thereupon make such Alteration upon his Oath and Claim as may be necessary in order to rectify the same, the Sheriff or Trustee, as the Case may be, shall disallow or reject such Oath and Claim: Provided always, that where the Failure to comply with the Provisions of the said recited Act shall appear to have been made for some improper or fraudulent Purpose, or where Injury can be qualified by the other Creditors or any of them in respect thereof, it shall not be incumbent upon the Sheriff or Trustee to give such Person an Opportunity to rectify his Oath and Claim as aforesaid.

Time for Examination of Bankrupt, and for Meeting of Creditors.

VIII. The Day to be fixed by the Sheriff for the Examination of the Bankrupt shall be not sooner than Seven Days nor later than Fourteen Days from the Date of the Sheriff's Warrant for such Examination; and the Meeting of Creditors appointed by the said recited Act to be held after the Examination of the Bankrupt shall be held on a Day not sooner than Seven Days nor later than Fourteen Days from the Day appointed for such Examination.

IX. Where-

IX. Wherever it is by the said recited Act or by this Act directed that a Meeting of Creditors shall or may be called or held, a Notice of the Day, Hour, Place, and Purpose of the Meeting shall be advertised in the Edinburgh Gazette Seven Days at least before the Day of the Meeting, in place of Fourteen Days, as at present; and such Meeting may be adjourned till the following Day. Notice on which Meetings may be called, shortened.

X. In place of the Times appointed by the said recited Act for Payment of Dividends, the Periods for Payment of Dividends shall be as follows; that is to say, where there are sufficient Funds realized, the First Dividend shall be payable on the First lawful Day after the Expiration of Six Months from the Date of Sequestration, and a Dividend shall always be payable on the First lawful Day after the Expiration of Three Months from the Date of the Payment of the immediately preceding Dividend, until the whole Funds of the Bankrupt be distributed, subject always to the Provisions in the said recited Act and in this Act contained: Provided always, that after the Second Dividend is made, a Majority of the Creditors, at any General Meeting called for the Purpose, may determine that future Dividends shall be made after shorter Intervals, and the Affairs of the Estate brought to a more speedy Close; and even before the Period assigned for the First Dividend as aforesaid, it shall be competent to Three Fourths in Number and Value of the Creditors present at the Meeting after the Bankrupt's Examination, or at any after Meeting called for the Purpose, to direct the Trustee to apply to the Lord Ordinary or the Sheriff for Authority to make the First Dividend at an earlier Period than the Expiration of Six Months from the Date of the Sequestration, but not earlier than Four Months from such Date, if upon Cause shown it shall be found expedient so to do, and also to accelerate the Time for making the Second and other Dividends; and where the Lord Ordinary or the Sheriff shall, upon such Application, accelerate the First or any subsequent Dividend, he shall also make the requisite Provision for the Acceleration of any other Matters which he may find it necessary to accelerate in consequence thereof. Provision for Payment and Acceleration of Dividends.

XI. To entitle any Creditor to Payment of the First Dividend, he shall produce, as directed by the said first-recited Act, his Oath and Grounds of Debt at least Two Months before the Time fixed for Payment of the First Dividend where such Time of Payment shall not have been accelerated, or One Month before the Time fixed for Payment of the First Dividend where such Time shall have been accelerated; and to entitle any Creditor to Payment of any of the subsequent Dividends, he shall produce, as aforesaid, his Oath and Grounds of Debt at least One Month before the Time fixed for Payment of the Dividend which he means to claim. Time for lodging Oaths and Grounds of Debt in order to Dividend.

XII. The State of the whole Estate of the Bankrupt, of the Funds recovered and outstanding, and of the Trustee's Intromissions and Management, directed by the said recited Act to be made up, shall be so made up immediately on the Expiration of Four Months from the Date of the Sequestration, in place of Six Months, as at present; and all Things directed by the said recited Act to be done by the Trustee, or Commissioners, or any other Person, within Fourteen Days after the Expiration of the said Six Months from the Date of the Sequestration, or within any Period calculated from the Expiration of the said Fourteen Days, shall be done within Fourteen Days after the Expiration of the said Four Months from the Date of the Sequestration, and within the like Period calculated from the Expiration of the said last-mentioned Fourteen Days respectively; and the Notice which by the said recited Act is directed to be given in the Edinburgh Gazette published next after the Expiration of the said first-mentioned Fourteen Days shall in lieu thereof be given in the Edinburgh Gazette published next after the Expiration of the said last-mentioned Fourteen Days. Time for making up State of Bankrupt's Affairs, and of the Trustee's Intromissions, &c.

XIII. The Scheme of Division directed by the said recited Act to be made up by the Trustee before the Expiration of Eight Months from the Date of the Sequestration shall be made up before the Expiration of Six Months from the said Date, and the State directed by the said recited Act to be made up by the Trustee on the Expiration of Ten Months from the Date of the Sequestration shall be made up on the Expiration of Seven Months from the said Date; and the Trustee shall, within Fourteen Days after the Expiration of the said Seven Months, exhibit the said State to the Commissioners, and thereupon such Procedure shall take place with reference to the said State, and to the Second Dividend, as is provided by the said recited Act. Time for making up Scheme of Division by the Trustee, and State of Affairs, &c., in order to Second Dividend.

XIV. The like Procedure shall be followed out as to subsequent Dividends at similar Intervals of Time thereafter, in order that a Dividend may be made on the First lawful Day after the Expiration of every Three Months from the Day of the Payment of the immediately preceding Dividend, until the whole Funds of the Bankrupt shall be divided. Like Procedure to be followed on Occasion of subsequent Dividends.

XV. Where any Creditor not resident within Great Britain or Ireland at the Date of the Deliverance awarding Sequestration, or at any Time within Four Months thereafter, shall lodge his Oath and Grounds of Debt Fourteen Days previous to any Time fixed for Payment of a Dividend, though not in Time to entitle such Creditor to participate in such Dividend, the Trustee shall make such Deduction from the divisible Fund as shall be equal to the Dividend which would have been payable to such Foreign Creditor had his Oath and Grounds of Debt been timeously lodged and his Claim been sustained; and the Sum so deducted shall form Part of the Fund for Division on the Occasion of Payment of the next Dividend. Where Foreign Creditor lodges Oath and Grounds of Debt at any Time previous to a Dividend, Fund to be laid aside.

XVI. The Bankrupt may, on the Expiration of Six Months from the Date of the Sequestration, in place of Eight Months, as at present, present a Petition to the Lord Ordinary or the Sheriff, to be finally discharged of all Debts contracted by him before the Date of the Sequestration, provided a Majority in Number and Four Fifths in Value of the Creditors who have produced Oaths concur in the Petition; and the Bankrupt may also present such Petition on the Expiration of Twelve Months from the Date of the Sequestration, provided a Majority in Number and Two Thirds in Value of the said Creditors concur in the Petition; and the Bankrupt may also present such Petition on the Expiration of Eighteen Months from Proceedings in Petition for Bankrupt's Discharge.

An Act to make better Provision for the efficient Discharge of the Duties of the Taxing Officer in and for the Common Law Business in Ireland. [4th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the Proceedings in the Civil Side of the Court of King's Bench, and also in the Court of Common Pleas, and in the Pleas or Common Law Side of the Court of Exchequer, in Ireland, and further, by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, being an Act to amend the said recited Act, an Establishment was formed for (amongst other Purposes) the Taxation of Bills of Costs in Common Law Business in Ireland, and by the said first-recited Act it was amongst other Things enacted, that it should be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland from Time to Time to appoint Two Officers, who should be and be called Taxing Officers in Common Law Business, who should have Power to tax the several Classes of Costs therein mentioned, and that after the Commencement of the said first-recited Act the several Classes of Costs therein mentioned should not be taxed by any other Officer or Person whomsoever, and it was thereby further enacted, that each of the said Taxing Officers should be entitled to receive out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom the yearly Sum of One thousand two hundred Pounds (of the then Currency of Ireland), to be payable as therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to regulate and reduce the Expenses of the Offices attached to the Superior Courts of Law in Ireland payable out of the Consolidated Fund, it was amongst other Things enacted, that whenever it should happen that the Two Persons then holding the Office of Taxing Officer to the said Law Courts should vacate the same by Death, Resignation, or Removal, there should thenceforth be for the said Three Courts but One Taxing Officer, who should be and be called Taxing Officer in Common Law Business, and that such Taxing Officer should have the Assistance in his said Business of One Examiner and One Clerk, to be appointed by him during his Pleasure, and that whenever it should happen that a Vacancy should arise in the said Office of Taxing Officer by Death, Resignation, or Removal of One only of the Two Persons then holding such Office, the Person to be appointed Taxing Officer in his Stead under the Provisions of the said herein-before first-recited Act should, notwithstanding anything in the said Act contained, be entitled to receive only the Salary specified for the Taxing Officer in the Schedule (D.) to the said Act annexed, and whenever the other of the Two Persons then holding the Office of Taxing Officer should die, resign, or be removed, the Person who should have been so appointed as joint Taxing Officer in the room of the Person so first dying, resigning, or being removed should be the sole Taxing Officer, as therein-before directed, with the Assistance of an Examiner and Clerk, who should respectively receive the Salaries specified in the said Schedule to the said Act annexed: And whereas James Clancy Esquire, One of the Persons holding the Office of Taxing Officer at the Time of the passing of the said last-recited Act, has vacated the same by Death, and Henry Colles Esquire has been appointed Taxing Officer in his Stead: And whereas William E. Hudson Esquire, the other of the said Persons holding the said Office of Taxing Officer at the Time of the passing of the said last-recited Act, has vacated the same by Death: And whereas it is expedient to make better Provision for the efficient Discharge of the Duties of the said Office:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That— 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 53. 7 & 8 Vict. c. 107.

An Act to facilitate the Redemption of certain Charges on the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown, and to make other Provisions in regard to the Management of such Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues. [4th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS under or by virtue of certain Letters Patent or Deeds, and ultimately by virtue of a certain Deed or Instrument in Writing dated the Fifth Day of June in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, and by other Instruments or Ways and Means, the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England, Wales, and the Isle of Man, now under the Management or Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or certain Parts thereof, are charged with or liable to the Payment of divers perpetual Pensions or yearly Sums of Money: And whereas it is apprehended that it would be advantageous, not only to the said Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues, but also to the Recipients of such of the said Pensions as do not amount to a larger annual Sum than Ten Pounds, if the Persons to whom the same

'same are payable were empowered to make such Arrangements for the Sale of the same as are herein-
'after mentioned: And whereas the said Pensions, or some of them, are by virtue of the Deeds or
'Instruments granting or creating the same made payable on different Feast Days and other Days
'throughout the Year, and it is desirable that in future the whole of the said Pensions should become
'due and payable on Two certain Days of Payment only in each Year: And whereas the said Pensions
'or yearly Sums have been heretofore paid subject to Deductions on account of Land Tax and certain
'accustomed Fees, and it has been the Custom to pay such Pensions on the Tenth of October annually:
'And whereas it is expedient that such other Provisions in regard to the Management of the said Here-
'ditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown should be made as are herein-after contained:'
Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

The Recipients of Pensions not exceeding 10*l.* per Annum may, with the Consent of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, sell the same to the Crown.

I. Any Bishop, Rector, Vicar, or other Ecclesiastical Person or Collegiate Body for the Time being in the Receipt of any of the said Pensions which does not exceed the annual Sum of Ten Pounds may, with the Consent of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and of the Patron of any Living or Preferment in respect of which the same is payable, sell and convey, or enter into any Agreement with the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or either of them, for the Sale and Conveyance to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, of the same Pension, for such Price and subject to such Stipulations and Conditions as may be agreed upon; provided that in any Case when the Purchase Money shall exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds the Purchase shall not be completed without the previous Authority of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to be signified by some Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands.

On Payment of Purchase Money to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and Conveyance being made, Pension purchased to be extinguished.

II. The Purchase Money to be paid for any of the said Pensions shall be paid by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, whose Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same, and on such Payment being made, and on the Execution by the Person for the Time being entitled to the Receipt of the Pension purchased of a Surrender or Conveyance to Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, such Pension shall cease and be extinguished, and the said Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown shall be wholly and for ever freed and discharged therefrom: Provided always, that the Receipt of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners under their Corporate Seal for any such Purchase Money shall be sufficient Evidence of such Purchase Money having been paid to them, and of the Sale having been made with their Consent: Provided also, that when any such Deed of Surrender or Conveyance or Receipt shall have been enrolled, either by the Deposit of a Duplicate thereof or otherwise, in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, the same Deed or Receipt, or an authenticated Copy of the Enrolment thereof, shall be admissible in Evidence, without Proof of the Execution of such Deed or Receipt, and the Enrolment of such Deed shall also be conclusive Evidence that the Provisions of this Act have been complied with.

Application of Purchase Money.

III. The Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, at their Discretion, apply the Purchase Money to be paid to them on any such Sale as aforesaid in any One or more of the following Modes; (namely,) in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities or Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Annuities, or in the Purchase of Land of Freehold Tenure to be annexed or conveyed or otherwise appropriated to or for the Purposes of the Living, Preferment, or Collegiate Body in respect of or to which the Pension was payable previously to the Purchase thereof, or in the Purchase or Redemption of any existing Charges, Incumbrances on or Outgoings from the same Living or Preferment or the Property of such Collegiate Body, or in the substantial or permanent Improvement of the Parsonage House or Glebe Land or other Buildings or Land annexed or belonging to or appropriated for the Use of any such Living, Preferment, or Collegiate Body: Provided also, that the Dividends or Interest on any such Stock and the Rents and Profits of any Land which may be so purchased as aforesaid shall belong and be paid to the Person or Persons or Collegiate Body who or which for the Time being would have been entitled to receive the Pension in case the same had not been extinguished: Provided also, that if in any Case the Purchase Money shall be laid out in the Purchase or Redemption of any such Charge, Incumbrance, or other Outgoing as aforesaid, the same shall not be kept on Foot, but shall be released or extinguished.

Pensions to become due and payable on 5th April and 10th October in each Year.

IV. From and after the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, the several Pensions or yearly Sums charged upon or payable in respect of any Part of the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England, Wales, or the Isle of Man shall from Time to Time respectively become due half-yearly, that is to say, on the Fifth Day of April and the Tenth Day of October in every Year only; and the Person who on any Fifth Day of April or Tenth Day of October shall be in possession of the Preferment, Appointment, or Office in respect of which any such Pension is payable shall be entitled to receive the whole net Amount of One Half Year's Pension, after making all lawful Deductions, notwithstanding he may not have been in the Enjoyment of such Preferment, Appointment, or Office during the whole of such Half Year, and his Predecessor, or the Representatives of his Predecessor, shall not be entitled to any apportioned Part of the same Half Year's Pension; and no Person to whom any half-yearly Payment of any such Pension as aforesaid shall fall due, or would, if this Act had not passed, have fallen due on any Day after the said Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and before the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall be entitled to receive on the said Fifth Day of April or at any other Time more than One Half Year's Amount of such Pension.

V. The

Provision for the Settlement of disputed Claims.

V. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or either of them, may, with the Consent of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to be signified in Writing under the Royal Sign Manual, and of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to be signified by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, make such Arrangements as may be from Time to Time considered expedient for the Adjustment or Settlement of any doubtful or disputed Rights or Claims of the Crown in or to any Real or Personal Property or any Forestal Right, the Management or Control whereof would, if such Rights or Claims were established in favour of the Crown, be vested in or devolve upon the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and in making any such Arrangement it shall be lawful for the same Commissioners or either of them (with such Consents as aforesaid) either to give up or relinquish the Rights or Claims of the Crown to any Portion or Portions of any such Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right, or to accept on behalf of Her Majesty any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Sum or Sums of Money, in lieu and satisfaction of such Rights or Claims generally; and it shall also be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues or either of them (with the like Consents) to enter into any Agreement for the Payment from Time to Time to any Person or Persons of any Rents or other Profits to be derived from, or any Purchase Monies to be received on account of the Sale of, any such Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right as aforesaid, or any Portion thereof respectively; and any Person claiming to be entitled in possession, either for Life or for any greater Estate, and either at Law or in Equity, to the Rents and Profits or the Interest or Income or the Use and Enjoyment of any such Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right as aforesaid may enter into any Agreement with either of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues for any of the Purposes aforesaid; and when any Deed, Agreement, or Writing effecting or purporting to effect any such Arrangement as aforesaid shall have been enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, the same shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties in anywise interested or claiming to be interested, and such Enrolment shall be sufficient Evidence of the Arrangement purported to be effected by any such Deed or Writing being authorized by this Act, and of the Provisions of this Act having been complied with. When it shall be made to appear to the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury that any Debt or Sum or Sums of Money due or claimed to be due either to the Capital or to the Income of the Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown under the Management or Control of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues is or are irrecoverable, either in whole or in part, or that it is inexpedient to take Proceedings for the Recovery of the same or of any Part thereof, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, from Time to Time, by any Order under his or their Hand or Hands, to direct that such Debt or Sum or Sums of Money shall, either in whole or in part, be released or discharged, either absolutely or subject to such Conditions as may be thought expedient; and any such Order shall, when enrolled in the Office of Land Revenue Records and Enrolments, either by the Deposit of a Duplicate thereof or otherwise, if the same shall relate to the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in England and Wales, or if the same shall relate to the Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown in Ireland when the same shall be enrolled in pursuance of the Provisions to that effect contained in an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, be binding and conclusive: Provided always, that no Debt, Sum or Sums of Money, due to the Capital of the Land Revenue of the Crown, shall be released or discharged without the Consent of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, to be from Time to Time signified in Writing under the Royal Sign Manual; provided also, that when any Proceedings at Law or in Equity shall have been commenced by Her Majesty's Attorney General for England or Ireland, as the Case may be, for the Purpose of establishing the Title of Her Majesty to or recovering any such Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right, or such Debt or Sum of Money, as aforesaid, or when any Petition of Right shall have been presented to Her Majesty or Her Heirs or Successors touching or concerning any Real or Personal Property or Forestal Right of or to which Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, may claim to be seised or entitled, any Arrangement for the Settlement of the Matter in difference, or any such Discharge as aforesaid, shall be subject to the Approval of the Attorney General for the Time being of England or Ireland, as the Case may be.

Deeds enrolled in Land Revenue Record Office not to require Enrolment in Courts of Law, &c.

VI. 'And whereas, under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of His 'late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and twenty-one, and of the Act passed in 'the Second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter One, any Deed, 'whereby any Lands or Hereditaments may be mortgaged, purchased, sold, exchanged, leased, or demised, 'under the Authority of the first-mentioned Act, is, when enrolled in the Office of the Land Revenue 'Records and Enrolments, and entered in the Office of the Commissioners of Woods, Forests, and Land 'Revenues, as good and available as if the same had been enrolled in any of the Courts at Westminster, or 'as if a Memorial had been registered in the Office appointed for registering Deeds; and it is expedient 'that the Provisions of the other Acts of Parliament relating to the Enrolment of Deeds affecting the 'Hereditary Possessions and Land Revenues of the Crown should in manner and as far as herein-after 'mentioned be assimilated to the Provisions of the said Acts, Chapter One hundred and twenty-one and 'Chapter One:' Be it therefore enacted, That any Deed, Instrument, or Writing to which either of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, or either of them, is a Party, or which is signed by either of them the said Commissioners, or which may in any Manner affect or relate to any Part of the Hereditary

Possessions

In any Case where Property shall be sold and conveyed in consideration of any Rentcharge or Annuity, or any annual or periodical Payment to be made permanently or for any indefinite Period, so that the total Amount of the Money to be paid for such Property cannot be previously ascertained, which Rentcharge, Annuity, or other Payment shall be made subject to Redemption or Purchase upon Terms and Conditions specified in the Deed or Instrument whereby the Property sold shall be conveyed to or vested in the Purchaser, or any Person by his Direction, the Money or the Consideration mentioned in the said Deed or Instrument as that on Payment or Transfer, Delivery or Satisfaction, of which the said Rentcharge, Annuity, or other Payment shall be redeemed or purchased or repurchased, or shall cease to be payable, shall be deemed to be the Purchase Money or Consideration on the Sale of the said Property so sold and conveyed, and in respect of which last-mentioned Purchase Money or Consideration the ad valorem Duty shall be chargeable; and where any such last-mentioned Consideration shall consist wholly or in part of any Stock or Security mentioned in the said Act, the Value thereof shall be ascertained as in such Act is in that Behalf provided; and where any such Annuity, Rentcharge, or other Payment aforesaid shall be made subject to Redemption or Purchase or Repurchase or Discontinuance upon Payment or Satisfaction of any Money or Value to be ascertained or calculated in manner provided in the said Deed or Instrument, the Amount of such Money or Value shall, for the Purpose of charging the said ad valorem Duty, be ascertained or calculated as in such Deed or Instrument shall be so provided.

XII. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter 'Ninety-seven, a Stamp Duty of Five Shillings was granted and imposed upon the Duplicate or Counter- 'part of any Deed or Instrument chargeable with Stamp Duty (exclusive of progressive Duty) to the 'Amount of Five Shillings or upwards; and it is provided that in such Case the Duplicate or Counter- 'part shall not be available unless stamped with a particular Stamp for denoting or testifying the Pay- 'ment of the full and proper Stamp Duty on the original Deed or Instrument; and it is expedient to 'dispense with the said particular Stamp on Counterparts of Leases:'

Counterparts of Leases not required to be impressed with the denoting Stamp.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the said Act, the Counterpart of any Lease of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, being duly stamped with the said Stamp Duty of Five Shillings, or any higher Stamp Duty (exclusive of progressive Duty), and not being executed or signed by or on the Behalf of any Lessor or Grantor, shall be available as a Counterpart without being stamped with a particular Stamp for denoting or testifying the Payment of the Stamp Duty chargeable on the original Lease.

XIII. 'And whereas by the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, when 'any Deed or Instrument shall be presented to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and the Fee of

'Ten

'Ten Shillings shall be paid to them for their Opinion as to the Stamp Duty with which such Deed or 'Instrument in their Judgment is chargeable, the said Commissioners are required to assess and charge 'the Stamp Duty on such Deed or Instrument, and, on the same being duly stamped, to impress thereon 'a particular Stamp to signify and denote that the full Amount of Stamp Duty with which such Deed 'or Instrument is by Law chargeable has been paid: And whereas the said Commissioners are not 'authorized to impress a particular Stamp upon any Deed or Instrument not chargeable with any Stamp 'Duty in order to denote that the same is not so chargeable; and it is expedient that Provision should 'be made for that Purpose:'

Commissioners may adjudge Deeds not liable to Stamp Duty.

It shall be lawful for any Person to present to the said Commissioners any Deed or Instrument, and upon Payment of the Fee of Ten Shillings, as in the said Act is mentioned, to require their Opinion whether or not the same is chargeable with any Stamp Duty, and if the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that such Deed or Instrument is not chargeable with any Stamp Duty, it shall be lawful for them and they are hereby required to impress thereon a particular Stamp, to be provided by them for that Purpose, with such Word or Words, or Device or Symbol thereon as they shall think proper in that Behalf, which shall signify and denote that such Deed is not chargeable with any Stamp Duty; and every such Deed or Instrument upon which the said Stamp shall be impressed shall be deemed to be not so chargeable, and shall be receivable in Evidence in all Courts of Law and Equity, notwithstanding any Objection made to the same as being chargeable with Stamp Duty, and not stamped to denote the same: Provided always, that if the said Commissioners shall assess and charge any Stamp Duty upon or in respect of any such Deed or Instrument, and the Party presenting the same and paying such Duty shall declare himself dissatisfied with their Determination, it shall be lawful for him to appeal against the same to Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, on the Terms and in the Manner in the said Act provided; and the said Court shall hear and determine the Appeal, and decide whether the said Deed or Instrument is chargeable with any, and if any, what Stamp Duty; and if the Court shall be of opinion that the same is not so chargeable, or is chargeable with a less Amount of Duty than shall have been assessed and charged thereon, then the Amount of such Duty or of the Excess (as the Case may be) shall be returned to the Appellant, together with the Sum deposited as in the said Act mentioned; and if the Court shall be of opinion that any further Duty is chargeable on the said Deed or Instrument, such further Duty shall be paid to the said Commissioners, and the Court shall order and enforce the Payment thereof accordingly.

Appeal from the Determination of the Commissioners.

XIV. 'And whereas it would facilitate the Transfer of the Bonds and Mortgages given by Public 'Companies under the Provisions of Acts of Parliament as Securities for Money which such Companies 'are by the said Acts expressly empowered or authorized to borrow, if the Transfers or Assignments 'of such Bonds or Mortgages were endorsed thereon, and were exempted from Stamp Duty, and it is 'expedient to grant such Exemption in consideration of a Composition Stamp Duty being paid on such 'Bonds and Mortgages on the original making and issuing thereof, in lieu of the Stamp Duty with 'which such Transfers or Assignments would otherwise be chargeable:'

Transfers of Bonds and Mortgages of Public Companies exempted from Stamp Duty on Payment of a Composition.

Where on the original making and issuing of any such Bond or Mortgage as aforesaid, and before any Transfer or Assignment thereof, the same shall be stamped with an Amount of Stamp Duty equal to Three Times the Amount of the ad valorem Stamp Duty chargeable thereon by Law, and over and above the said ad valorem Duty, then every Transfer or Assignment thereafter made of such Bond or Mortgage by Endorsement thereon shall be deemed to be exempt from the Stamp Duty which would otherwise be payable in respect of such Transfer or Assignment: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to exempt any such Transfer or Assignment from any Stamp Duty to which it may be liable as a Settlement of the Money or Stock secured by such Bond or Mortgage, or any Portion thereof.

XV. 'And whereas it is desirable to facilitate the Purchase of stamped Paper, Covers, or Envelopes, 'and of other Stamps for expressing or denoting the Rates or Duties of Postage (all of which are herein- 'after designated as Postage Stamps, and for that Purpose to enable certain Persons in the Service of 'the Post Office to sell Postage Stamps without having any such Licence as the Laws now in force 'require in that Behalf, and without being subject or liable to any Penalty for carrying about Postage 'Stamps for Sale:'

Persons authorized by Postmaster General may sell Postage Stamps, or carry same about for Sale, without being subject to Penalty.

It shall be lawful for the Postmaster General by Writing under his Hand to authorize and appoint any Person in the Service or Employment of the Post Office to sell Postage Stamps at any particular House or Place to be specified for that Purpose, and also any Messenger or other Person employed in the Delivery of Letters sent by Post to carry about for Sale and to sell at any Place Postage Stamps, and all such Persons shall, during the Period that such Authority and Appointment shall remain in force and unrevoked, without any Licence or any Authority other than last aforesaid, be at liberty to sell at any House or Place to be specified as aforesaid, or if so authorized, to carry about for Sale and sell at any Place, any Postage Stamps, and such Persons respectively shall not be subject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture for so doing, anything in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, 'Chapter Eighteen, granting Stamp Duties upon Playing Cards made fit for Sale or Use in the United 'Kingdom, such Duties to be denoted on the Ace of Spades of each Pack of Cards, it is enacted, that no 'Playing Cards shall be sold as Waste Cards unless a Corner of each Card shall be cut off at least Half 'an Inch in Depth, and other Provisions are therein contained for securing the said Duties: And whereas 'Packs or Parcels of Cards fit and intended for Use and Play, but not containing an Ace of Spades duly

'stamped

'stamped, are commonly sold under the Pretence of being Waste Cards, each of such Cards having a 'Corner cut off, whereby the said Duties are evaded; and it is expedient to prevent such Practice:'

For preventing the Evasion of the Duties on Playing Cards.

No Playing Cards, except such as shall be bonâ fide spoiled and rendered unfit for Use as Playing Cards in the Process of Manufacture, and which shall have a Corner cut off as in the said last-mentioned Act is provided, nor any Cards commonly called or known as Picture Cards or Court Cards, shall be deemed to be Waste Cards; and no Playing Cards except Waste Cards shall be sold otherwise than in Packs, each Pack containing Fifty-two Cards of the Four usual Suits of Thirteen Cards each, including an Ace of Spades duly stamped for denoting the Duty by the said Act granted on a Pack of Cards, and tied up together in manner directed by the said Act; and if any Person shall sell or expose or keep for Sale any Playing Cards, not being a Pack of Cards as aforesaid, and the same not being bonâ fide Waste Cards within the Meaning of this Act, he shall for every Pack, Parcel, or separate Quantity of Cards so sold or exposed or kept for Sale forfeit, if he shall not be a licensed Maker of Playing Cards, the Sum of Ten Pounds, and if he shall be such licensed Maker the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and all Cards so sold or exposed or kept for Sale shall be forfeited, and may be seized and taken by any Officer of Inland Revenue, and be disposed of as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall direct; provided that if in any Proceeding any Question shall arise whether any Cards are or were bonâ fide Waste Cards or not, Proof of the Affirmative thereof shall lie on the Party selling the same or having or keeping the same for Sale.

XVII. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Session held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the 'Reign of King George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty-three, Officers of Excise and Persons employed in the 'Collection or Management of or accounting for the Revenue of Excise are exempted from serving as 'Mayor or Sheriff, or in any corporate or parochial or other public Office or Employment, or on any 'Jury or Inquest, or in the Militia; and it is expedient to extend the same to all other Officers appointed 'by or under the Commissioners of Inland Revenue:'

Exemption of Excise Officers from serving public Offices extended to Officers of Inland Revenue.

No Officer or Person appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or employed by them or under their Authority or Direction in any way relating to any of the Duties under their Care or Management, shall, so long as he shall continue in and exercise such last-mentioned Office or Employment, be compelled to serve as Mayor or Sheriff, or in any of the Offices, Employments, or Capacities in the said Act and herein-before in that Behalf mentioned.

Allowance for Receipt Stamps on hand.

XVIII. Where any Person shall be possessed of any Stamps rendered useless by this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, on Application to them or to their proper Officer in that Behalf, at any Time within Six Calendar Months after the Commencement of this Act to cancel and make Allowance for the same, as in the Case of spoiled Stamps, after deducting the Discount by Law granted on the Purchase of Receipt Stamps.

Drafts on Bankers payable to Order on Demand sufficient Authority for Payment without Proof of Endorsement.

XIX. Provided always, That any Draft or Order drawn upon a Banker for a Sum of Money payable to Order on Demand which shall, when presented for Payment, purport to be endorsed by the Person to whom the same shall be drawn payable, shall be a sufficient Authority to such Banker to pay the Amount of such Draft or Order to the Bearer thereof; and it shall not be incumbent on such Banker to prove that such Endorsement, or any subsequent Endorsement, was made by or under the Direction or Authority of the Person to whom the said Draft or Order was or is made payable either by the Drawer or any Endorser thereof.

XX. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifth and Sixth Years 'of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Eighty-two, certain Rates and Duties denominated Stamp Duties 'were granted and made payable in Ireland for a limited Term; and by Four several Acts passed 'respectively in the Eighth, Eleventh, Fourteenth, and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign the 'same Rates and Duties were continued for Four other several and successive Terms, the last of which 'will expire on the Tenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three; and it is expe-'dient to make the said Rates and Duties perpetual:'

Stamp Duties in Ireland granted by 5 & 6 Vict. c. 82. and continued by 8 & 9 Vict. c. 2. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 9. 14 & 15 Vict. c. 18. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 21. made perpetual.

Acts continued in force.

All the several Sums of Money and Duties and Composition for Duties granted and made payable in Ireland by the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-two, and not repealed by any subsequent Act, and also all Duties now payable in lieu or instead of any of the said Duties which may have been so repealed, shall be and the same are hereby continued and made perpetual, and shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors for ever: The said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, and all and every other Act and Acts now in force in relation to the Duties and Composition for Duties which are continued by this Act, shall severally be continued and remain in full Force in all respects in relation to the said Duties and Composition for Duties hereby continued and granted, and all and every the Powers and Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in the said Acts or any of them, and in force as aforesaid, shall severally and respectively be duly observed, practised, applied, and put in execution in relation to the said Duties and Composition for Duties hereby continued and granted, for the charging, raising, levying, paying, accounting for, and securing of the said Duties and Composition for Duties, and all Arrears thereof, and for the preventing, detecting, and punishing of all Frauds, Forgeries, and other Offences relating thereto, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act with reference to the said Duties and Composition for Duties hereby granted.

I. That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to grant to any Magistrate heretofore appointed or hereafter to be appointed under the said recited Act a Salary not exceeding Five hundred Pounds by the Year: Provided always, that not more than Twenty of such Magistrates shall at any One Time be entitled to receive Salaries exceeding the annual Rate of Four hundred Pounds: Provided also, that the aggregate Amount of all the Salaries payable to all the Magistrates for the Time being appointed as aforesaid shall not at any Time exceed the Amount which would have been payable if the annual Salary of every such Magistrate had been Four hundred Pounds, and no more, unless such Excess shall have been caused by the Death, Resignation, or Removal of a Magistrate receiving a less annual Salary than Four hundred Pounds, and by a new Magistrate not having been appointed immediately thereupon.

A Certificate of Diligence and Fidelity to be given by the Chief Secretary, and not by Inspector General, on Superannuation of Magistrates under 10 & 11 Vict. c. 100.

And with respect to the Inquisition, be it further enacted as follows:

Commissions may be directed to fewer than Three Persons, and shall be directed to Masters.

XXXVIII. Any Commission in the Nature of a Writ De lunatico inquirendo directed to One Person or to Two Persons, and the Inquisition returned thereon, shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if directed to and returned by more than Two Persons; and every Commission shall (subject to the Provision herein-after contained) be directed to the Masters, or One of them, and may be varied in Form from that now in use in such Manner as to the Lord Chancellor may seem necessary or expedient.

General Commission may be issued directed to Masters.

XXXIX. In lieu of the Commission now issued specially in each Case of alleged Lunacy, a General Commission to the like Effect, with such Variations as may be necessary or expedient, may from Time to Time be issued in Duplicate under the Great Seal, directed to the Masters by Name, jointly and severally, who shall by virtue thereof proceed, in each Case of alleged Lunacy concerning which the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order them to inquire, in like Manner and with all the like Powers and Authorities (subject to the Provisions herein-after contained) as if a Commission had issued specially in such Case, and every Inquisition found and returned thereon shall be as valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been found and returned on a separate Commission.

Alleged Lunatic, within Jurisdiction, to have Notice, and may demand Inquiry before a Jury.

XL. Where the alleged Lunatic is within the Jurisdiction, he shall have Notice of the Presentation of the Petition for Inquiry, and may, by a Notice, signed by him, and attested by his Solicitor, and filed with the Registrar, either before the Presentation of the Petition or within Seven Days after such Notice had by him as aforesaid, or at or within such other Time as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall order in the particular Case, demand an Inquiry before a Jury.

Where alleged Lunatic demands a Jury, Lord Chancellor may examine him as to Competency, and order a Jury.

XLI. Where the alleged Lunatic demands an Inquiry before a Jury, the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall in his Order for Inquiry direct the Return of a Jury, unless he be satisfied, by personal Examination of the alleged Lunatic, that he is not mentally competent to form and express a Wish for an Inquiry before a Jury; and the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may, where he shall deem it necessary, after Presentation of the Petition for Inquiry, and for the Purpose of personal Examination, require the alleged Lunatic to attend him at such convenient Time and Place as he may appoint.

Cases where a Jury may be dispensed with.

XLII. Where the alleged Lunatic does not demand an Inquiry before a Jury, or the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid is satisfied by personal Examination of him that he is not mentally competent to form and express a Wish in that Behalf, and it appears to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, upon Consideration of the Evidence adduced before him on the Petition for Inquiry, and of the Circumstances of the Case, so far as they are before him, to be unnecessary or inexpedient that the Inquiry should be before a Jury, and he accordingly does not in his Order for Inquiry direct the Return of a Jury, then the Masters shall, by virtue of their General Commission, and under such Order for Inquiry, but without a Jury, personally examine the alleged Lunatic, and take such Evidence, upon Oath or otherwise, and call for such Information, as they may think fit or the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may direct, in order to ascertain whether or not the alleged Lunatic is of unsound Mind, and shall certify their Finding thereon.

Jury to be had, if Masters certify that it is expedient.

XLIII. Where the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, under such Circumstances as herein-before mentioned, does not in his Order for Inquiry direct the Return of a Jury, but the Masters acting under the Commission, upon Consideration of the Evidence before them, certify to him that in their Opinion an Inquiry before a Jury is expedient, they shall, without further Order, issue their Precept to the Sheriff, and shall proceed in like Manner in all respects, and their Proceedings shall be as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid had directed the Return of a Jury in the first instance.

XLIV. Where the Masters certify that the alleged Lunatic is of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs, or that he his of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs, and has been so from a Time past, or, on the contrary, certify that the alleged Lunatic is of sound Mind, and capable of managing himself and his Affairs, the Certificate shall be and be deemed to be an Inquisition, and be of the same Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, and be returned, filed, and proceeded on in the same Manner in all respects as an Inquisition taken upon the Oath of a Jury.

XLV. Where

Jury to be had if Lunatic out of Jurisdiction.

XLV. Where the alleged Lunatic is not within the Jurisdiction the Inquiry shall be before a Jury, and no further or other Notice shall be necessary to be given to him than he would have been entitled to receive if this Act had not been passed.

Lord Chancellor may regulate Number of Jury.

XLVI. The Lord Chancellor may from Time to Time, by Order, regulate the Number of Jurors to be sworn, but so that every Inquisition upon the Oath of a Jury be found by the Oaths of Twelve Men, at the least.

Inquiry not to be carried back, except under Special Order.

XLVII. The Inquiry, whether with or without a Jury, shall, as far as relates to the State of Mind of the alleged Lunatic, be confined to the Question whether or not the alleged Lunatic is of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs, at the Time of the Inquiry, except where the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, under special Circumstances, shall direct that there be also an Inquiry from what Time the alleged Lunatic has been of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing himself or his Affairs, or shall direct that there be also an Inquiry whether or not the alleged Lunatic was of unsound Mind, and incapable of managing himself and his Affairs, at a previous Time specified, and thenceforth down to the Time of the Inquiry.

Commissioner, with Jury, to have certain Powers.

XLVIII. The Person executing an Inquiry with a Jury shall, while so employed, have all the like Powers, Authorities, and Discretion as a Judge of a Court of Record.

The foregoing Provisions prospective only.

XLIX. The foregoing Provisions "with respect to the Inquisition" shall apply only where the Petition for Inquiry is presented after the Commencement of this Act; and every Petition for Inquiry theretofore presented, and on which an Order has not then been made, shall, with respect to the Inquisition, be proceeded on as if this Act had not been passed.

Nothing to preclude the Lord Chancellor from issuing a Special Commission.

L. Nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to preclude the Lord Chancellor from issuing a Commission specially in any Case of alleged Lunacy, or from issuing a Commission directed to any fit Person or Persons, in addition to the Masters, or One of them, if he shall upon any Occasion deem it proper to do so; and the foregoing Provisions shall be deemed to extend to every Commission so issued specially, or so directed as aforesaid, so far as they may be applicable.

Reference in other Acts shall apply to General Commission hereby authorized to be issued.

LI. Where in any Act of Parliament, Order or Rule of Court, or Instrument whatsoever, Reference is made to a Commission in the Nature of a Writ De lunatico inquirendo, or the Inquisition thereon, the General Commission hereby authorized to be issued, and such Inquisition, or Certificate operating as an Inquisition, as is hereby authorized to be made and returned, shall be deemed to be intended by or comprehended in the Reference.

Inquisition and Supersedeas may be transmitted from and to Ireland and England, and be acted upon there respectively.

LII. Where it is desired that an Inquisition taken on a Commission issued under, or a Writ of Supersedeas thereof issued under, the Great Seal of the United Kingdom or under the Great Seal of Ireland respectively, should be acted upon in Ireland or in England respectively, the proper Officer may, under Order of the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, as the Case may be, transmit a Transcript of the Record of the Inquisition, or of the Writ, to the Chancery of Ireland or of England, as the Case may be, which Transcript shall thereupon be entered and be of Record there respectively, and shall, when so entered of Record, and if and so long only as the Lord Chancellor of Ireland intrusted as aforesaid, and the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain intrusted as aforesaid, as the Case may be, shall see fit, be acted upon by them respectively, and be of the same Validity and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Inquisition had been taken on a Commission issued under, or the Writ of Supersedeas had been issued under, the Great Seal of Ireland or of the United Kingdom respectively.

'And whereas Proceedings under Commission confer larger and more effectual Powers for the due 'Protection, Care, and Management of the Persons and Estates of Persons of unsound Mind than Pro-'ceedings under the Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign 'of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred, Sections Ninety-four to Ninety-eight (both inclusive), and the 'Expenses of Proceedings under Commission will be much diminished by this Act:' Be it therefore further enacted as follows:

Proceedings under 8 & 9 Vict. c. 100, to be discontinued.

LIII. It shall not be lawful for the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to direct that One of the Masters shall make such Examination as by the Ninety-fifth Section of the last-mentioned Act is authorized in any Case in which a Petition or a Report upon which such Direction of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid might be founded shall not have been presented or made before the Commencement of this Act.

Inquiry may be ordered on Report of Commissioners.

LIV. Where the Commissioners in Lunacy for the Time being shall after the Commencement of this Act, by virtue of any Authority for the Time being enabling them in that Behalf, report to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid that they are of opinion that the Property of any Person alleged to be a Lunatic, or detained or taken charge of as a Lunatic, but not so found by Inquisition, is not duly protected, or that the Income thereof is not duly applied for his Benefit, or to the same Effect, the Report shall be filed with the Registrar, and shall be deemed and taken to be tantamount to an ordinary Petition for Inquiry supported by Evidence, and the alleged Lunatic shall have Notice of the Report from such Person as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall from Time to Time direct, and the Case shall proceed and be conducted as nearly as may be in all respects as is herein-before directed upon the Presentation of a Petition for Inquiry.

And

And with respect to certain of the Proceedings after Inquisition, be it further enacted as follows:

LIX. Where an Affidavit is required for verifying all or some of the Statements contained in a Petition, State of Facts, Proposal, or other Document, the Affidavit may be annexed or underwritten thereto, and may be in the Form set forth in the Third Schedule hereunder written, with such Variations as the Circumstances may require; and where the aforesaid Form is, in the Opinion of the Taxing Master, applicable, no further or greater Costs of any Affidavit shall be allowed on Taxation than would be allowed for an Affidavit in the aforesaid Form.

Witnesses may be cross-examined orally.

LX. Every Person giving Evidence by Affidavit shall be liable to oral Cross-examination by or before the Masters, in the same Manner as if the Evidence given by him in his Affidavit had been given by him orally before the Masters, and after Cross-examination may be re-examined orally by or on behalf of the Person filing the Affidavit; and every Person giving Evidence by Affidavit shall be bound to attend before the Masters, to be so cross-examined and re-examined, upon receiving due and proper Notice, and Payment or Tender of his reasonable Expenses, in like Manner as if he had been duly served with a Writ of Subpœna ad testificandum before an Examiner of the High Court of Chancery; and the Expenses attending on such Cross-examination and Re-examination shall be paid in the first instance by the Parties respectively, in like Manner as if the Witness cross-examined were the Witness of the Party cross-examining, and shall on Taxation be ultimately borne and paid by the Estate, or the Parties respectively, or One of them, as the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall direct.

If Her Majesty do not by Her Warrant direct Grant of Custody to be under Great Seal, Order of Lord Chancellor shall have the same Effect.

LXIII. In case Her Majesty shall think fit to authorize the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid to make Orders from Time to Time for the Custody of Persons already found or who may hereafter be found Idiots or Lunatics as aforesaid, and of their Estates, without requiring that any Grant or Commitment of such Custody should be passed under the Great Seal, then any Order to be made by the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid in pursuance of such Authority shall (as to the Custody of the Person immediately, and as to the Custody of the Estate upon the Masters Certificate of Completion of the Committee's Security,) have the same Force and Validity as a Grant and Commitment of the Custody of such Idiots or Lunatics and their Estates would have had in case the same had been made under the Great Seal, by virtue of any Authority for that Purpose given by Her Majesty to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, and the Provisions of this Act respecting the Grant shall be deemed to extend to any Order to be made as aforesaid.

Masters may authorize Payment or Transfer into Court of Money or Stock as Security for Committee.

LXIV. Where it is desired and the Masters allow that the approved Committee of the Estate should, in lieu of giving Security in the Manner now usual by Bond or Recognizance with Sureties, give Security, in the whole or in part, by bringing into Court an adequate Sum of Money or Stock, the Masters may by Certificate direct or give Liberty for the Payment into the Bank of England, with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to the Credit of the Matter of the Lunatic, of any Sum of Money, or the Transfer into the Name and with the Privity of the said Accountant General, in trust in the Matter of the Lunatic, of any Sum of Stock, and may specify the Account to which the Sum of Money or Stock is to be placed, and may direct how any Money is to be invested, or how any Dividends are to be applied, and such Payment, Transfer, Investment, and Application, as the Case may require, shall be made by virtue of such Certificate, and the said Accountant General shall declare the Trust of the Sum of Money or Stock when so paid or transferred accordingly, subject to the Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid.

Where the Masters are of opinion that any small Expenses included in the Committee's or Receiver's Account have been properly and reasonably incurred for the Benefit or Enjoyment of the Lunatic, or the Improvement, Security, or Advantage of his Estate, and there is no Opposition to the Allowance thereof, but it may not be competent to them to allow the same to the Committee or Receiver without the Sanction of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, they shall distinguish the Items by some Mark in their Allowance of the Account, which shall be made subject to the Approval of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, and the Account as passed by the Masters shall be submitted by them to the Lord Chancellor, without Petition, for his Allowance or Disallowance in respect of the Items so distinguished by them.

Masters may receive Proposals in other Cases.

LXXI. Where the Masters, without an Order of Reference, receive any Proposal or proceed in any Inquiry relating to the Estate, not respecting the managing, repairing, setting, or letting thereof, or any Proposal or Inquiry whatsoever respecting the Person, any Person attending before them shall be at liberty to apply by Petition to the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid, as he may be advised; and thereupon the Masters shall, pending the Application, cease from proceeding on the Proposal or in the Inquiry, unless the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid otherwise direct.

Persons objecting to Masters receiving Proposal may apply to Lord Chancellor.

LXXII. Where the Masters, without an Order of Reference, receive and proceed on a Proposal or conduct an Inquiry, but arrive at the Opinion that the Proposal ought not to be adopted and carried into effect, or that the Inquiry was unnecessary, they shall be at liberty to certify whether or not, regard being had to the Circumstances, the Proposal or Inquiry was proper to be made; and if they certify in the affirmative, usual and proper Costs of the Proposal or Inquiry and Proceedings thereon shall be allowed on Taxation by virtue of their Certificate, but if they certify in the negative the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid shall direct by whom and in what Manner the Costs shall be paid and borne.

Masters may certify as to Propriety of Proposal with regard to Costs.

LXXIII. Where any Person requires that the Masters should report on a Proposal which they have received and proceeded on without an Order of Reference, notwithstanding their Opinion that it should not be adopted and carried into effect, the Masters shall report on the Proposal, and the Report shall be brought before the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid by Petition, who shall make such Order upon the Report and respecting the Costs as to him shall under the Circumstances seem just.

Lord Chancellor may dispense with or limit Inquiry as to next of Kin.

LXXVII. Masters to report where Inquiry as to next of Kin inexpedient.

LXXVIII. Where the Masters are of opinion that by reason of the Smallness of the Property of a Lunatic or for any other Reason an Inquiry or a subsequent Inquiry (as the Case may be) respecting next of Kin should be dispensed with or deferred, or be carried on to a limited Extent only, they shall report accordingly.

Masters may dispense with strict Proof of Pedigree in certain Cases.

LXXIX. Where the Masters, in conducting an Inquiry respecting next of Kin, without any special Direction of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid concerning the Mode of conducting the same, are of opinion that the Circumstances of the Case render it expedient and safe that strict Proof of Pedigree should not be gone into, they may dispense with the same to such Extent and in such Manner as may to them seem expedient, and may require and receive such Evidence as may appear to them sufficient and satisfactory respecting the Family and the next of Kin, and shall certify the Mode in which they have conducted the Inquiry.

Lord Chancellor may dispense with Attendance of next of Kin.

LXXX. The Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid may, by Order, dispense with and disallow the Attendance on the Proceedings in the Matter of all or some of the next of Kin either wholly, or except at their own Expense, or except upon special Leave first obtained, as he shall under the Circumstances think expedient; and such Notice only of attending on the Proceedings shall be given as shall be conformable with the Order of the Lord Chancellor intrusted as aforesaid.

CAP. LXXXII.

An Act to provide for the future Regulation and Management and the permanent Endowment of "The College of Christ of Brecknock," founded by King Henry the Eighth, with permissive Powers to unite the same with Saint David's College. [15th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS the College of Christ of Brecknock in South Wales was founded by King Henry the Eighth by his Royal Charter bearing Date the Nineteenth Day of January in the Thirty-third Year of His Reign, whereby, after stating that His Majesty's Subjects dwelling in the Southern Part of Wales were unable by reason of their Poverty to educate their Sons in good Letters, and by reason of their Ignorance of the English Language were unable to understand those Laws and Statutes which they were bound to obey, and that the said Foundation was intended to comprise a Grammar School and Divinity Lectureship, for providing Instruction, both in Letters and Divinity, by competent Instructors, His said Majesty did establish a Grammar School and Divinity Lectureship, and provide thereby gratuitous Instruction, both in Letters and Divinity, by competent Instructors, and by the aforesaid Charter the House or Priory of the Preaching Friars at Brecknock, and all Edifices, Lands, and Property which belonged to that Priory at the then late Dissolution thereof, were given and confirmed by His Majesty to the Bishop of Saint David's and his Successors, and Power and Authority were given to the Bishop and all Prebendaries or Ministers of the College then existing at Abergwilly within

'within the Diocese of Saint David's, of which the Bishop was Dean, and all Schoolmasters, Preachers, 'and other Persons, to frequent, inhabit, and abide in the Possessions of the Priory, and Power and 'Authority were also given to the Bishop of Saint David's to transfer the Prebendaries and other 'Ministers of the College of Abergwilly to the College of Christ of Brecknock, and His Majesty did 'grant that all Lands, Advowsons, Hereditaments, and Rights belonging to the College of Abergwilly 'or the Fabric thereof should be held and enjoyed by the Bishop and Prebendaries, to the Use, Support, 'and Maintenance of the College of Christ of Brecknock; and shortly after the Date of the said Charter 'the College of Abergwilly, with its Possessions and the Prebendaries and the Ministers thereof, were 'duly transferred to the College of Christ of Brecknock: And whereas for many Years before and up to 'the Time of the passing of the Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, 'herein-after recited, the Collegiate Body of the said College of Christ of Brecknock consisted of a Dean, 'being the Bishop of Saint David's for the Time being, and holding the Prebend of Llangadock and 'the Church or Parsonage of Mothvey in right of such Deanery, a Treasurer, formerly holding in right 'of that Office the Prebend of Llangammarch, but which Prebend by an Act passed in the Twelfth 'Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, was severed from the said College, and annexed to the See of Saint 'David's, a Precentor, holding in right of that Office the Prebend of Llanfynydd, a Chancellor, holding 'in right of that Office the Prebend of Llanbister, and Nineteen other Prebendaries, holding certain 'Prebends in right of their respective Offices, a Particular of all which said several Dignities, 'with the Endowments thereof, and of several yearly Pensions accustomed to be paid thereout for 'the Purposes of the said College, and which have been latterly applied in Payment of the Stipend of a 'Schoolmaster and Lecturer in Divinity for the said College, is set forth in the First Schedule to this 'Act: And whereas in process of Time the Church and Buildings belonging to the said College have 'fallen into and are now in a State of Decay, and the annual Payments accustomed to be made by the 'said Dean and Prebendaries for the Purposes of the College are inadequate to place the Foundation upon 'an efficient Footing: And whereas by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Third and Fourth
3 & 4 Vict. c. 113. 'Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to carry into effect, with certain Modifications, the 'Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues, the Deanery of the said 'College will on the next Vacancy thereof become suppressed, and all the Lands, Tithes, Tithe Rent-'charges, and other Hereditaments (excepting any Rights of Patronage), and all other Emoluments and 'Endowments belonging to the said Deanery, will on such Avoidance become absolutely vested in the 'Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and all the Lands, Tithes, and other Hereditaments (excepting Rights 'of Patronage) belonging to the respective Dignities or Offices of Treasurer, Precentor, Chancellor, and 'the several Prebendaries or other Officers of the said Collegiate Church (except as to such Parts 'thereof as are permanently annexed to the said Bishopric) have already, as to such of the said Dignities 'and Offices as were vacant at the passing of this Act or have since become vacant, and as to all others 'will immediately upon the next Vacancies thereof respectively, become vested absolutely in the 'Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and their Successors, for the Purposes of the said Act, 'subject nevertheless to such Leases as at the respective Times of such Vacancies occurring were or 'shall be subsisting and in force; but in the said Act is contained a Proviso that nothing therein con-'tained should in any Manner apply to or affect the Dignity, Office, or Prebend which was permanently 'annexed to any Bishopric, Archdeaconry, Professorship, or Lectureship, or to any School, or the 'Mastership thereof: And whereas Eleven of the Prebends in the said Collegiate Church have become 'vacant, and are so distinguished in the First Schedule to this Act, and all the Lands, Tithes, and other 'Hereditaments constituting or belonging to the said last-mentioned Prebends (excepting Rights of 'Patronage) have become vested (subject to the subsisting Leases affecting the same) in the said 'Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for the Purposes of the said Act: And whereas, in order to provide for 'the Restoration of the Fabric of the said Collegiate Church and Buildings to a proper Condition of 'Repair, and for augmenting the Endowment of the said College, with a view to carry out in an efficient 'Manner, and with greater Advantage, the Purposes for which the said College was founded by the 'said Royal Charter, as in this Act is before expressed, a Proposal has been agreed upon by the said 'Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the Right Reverend Connop Thirlwall D.D., the present Bishop of 'Saint David's and Dean of the said Collegiate Church, that the Lands and Hereditaments situate at 'Brecknock, described in the First Part of the Second Schedule to this Act, at present held by the said 'Bishop, and also the said Prebend of Llangadock, and Parsonage of Mothvey, respectively described in 'the Second Part of the said Second Schedule to this Act, (whether the same respectively be held 'by the said Bishop in right of his said Bishopric of Saint David's or of the said Deanery,) should be 'relinquished and given up by him, in consideration of his receiving such Compensation for the same 'as is herein-after provided for, and that the same Lands and Hereditaments, Prebend, and Parsonage, 'with the annual Pensions in the First Schedule mentioned as accustomed to be paid in respect of 'the said several Prebends therein set forth until the same shall respectively become vacant, and also 'a Portion, to be ascertained as herein-after mentioned, of the annual Revenues of the said Estates 'belonging to the said Prebends, or a specific Portion of the same Prebends, subject to the Interests of 'the present Holders thereof, should be permanently settled as an Endowment for the said College: 'And whereas it is expedient that the said College should be put upon a proper Footing of Government 'and Regulation, and be subject to suitable Constitutions, Ordinances, Statutes, and Regulations:' But inasmuch as the aforesaid Objects cannot be carried into effect without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's

Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

CAP. LXXXVII.

An Act to give to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings extended Time and further Powers for completing the Embankment of the River Thames between Vauxhall and Battersea Bridges, and a new Street from Lower Sloane Street in connexion therewith. [20th August 1853.]

9 & 10 Vict. c. 39.

'WHEREAS by the Thirty-ninth Chapter of the Statutes made in the Session of Parliament held in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and which received the Royal Assent on the Third Day of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings were empowered to construct and complete an Embankment and Roadway along the North Bank of the River Thames from Battersea Bridge to Vauxhall Bridge, and to construct and complete a Bridge across the said River from a Point near to Chelsea Hospital to a Point near the Public House called the Red House, with convenient Approaches thereto, together with convenient Piers, Stairs, Hards, and Landing Places; and also a Street from the South End of Lower Sloane Street to the Northern Extremity of such Bridge, in manner therein mentioned, and according to certain Surveys, Plans, and Designs therein referred to; and which Plans and Designs, in pursuance of a Provision in that Behalf in the Sixth Section of the said Act contained, were duly deposited for public Inspection at the Office of the said Commissioners: And whereas in a Schedule to the said Act was contained a List of the Houses and Buildings, Lands and Hereditaments, which would probably be required for the Purposes thereof; and it was by the Eighth Section of the said Act provided that the said Commissioners, in making the said Roadway and Street and the Approaches to the said Bridge, should not deviate more than Fifty Feet from the Lines described in the aforesaid Plans and Designs, without the Consent and Approbation of the Person through whose Lands or Tenements such Deviation should be made, or the Use and Enjoyment of whose Tenements should be affected by such Deviation; and that in respect to the Soil or Freeholds of the Reverend Joseph George Brett Clerk, no Deviation should take place without adequate Compensation in reference to the same being made to him in manner therein mentioned; and by the Twenty-first Section of the said Act it was provided that no Houses or Buildings, Lands or Hereditaments, other than the Bed of the said River, should be taken or made use of for the Purposes of the said Act, except such as were mentioned in the said Schedule thereunto annexed, or as were situated within the Limits of the Line of Deviation therein-before authorized, without the Consent in Writing of the Owner or Owners thereof being first had and obtained for that Purpose; and it was by the Twenty-seventh Section of the said Act also enacted, that if the said Commissioners for executing the said Act should not within the Space of Seven Years, to be computed from the passing of the said Act, purchase or take the Tenements and Hereditaments, or Parts thereof respectively, which they were thereby empowered to take, use, and purchase, then and from thenceforth the Powers thereby granted to them for such Purpose should cease, determine, and be utterly void: And whereas it was by the said recited Act also stated that the whole Cost of constructing such proposed Embankment and Roadway as aforesaid was not to fall ultimately upon the Public, but that a certain Proportion of such Cost was to be contributed (either in Money or by conveying the Land required free of Expense, or by constructing the same Embankment and Roadway, or Parts thereof, at Prime Cost or otherwise,) by certain of the Owners of or Parties interested in the Tenements situated on the River Frontage, along which the said intended Embankment and Roadway were to pass, in consideration of the Benefit which would accrue therefrom to their said respective Tenements, and that certain of such Parties were willing to contribute accordingly in some of the Modes aforesaid, and that it was intended that they should respectively enter into Agreements with the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, to make such Contribution accordingly in such Sums or otherwise as the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, should approve of; and that no Part of the said intended Embankment and Roadway should be commenced until after all such Agreements as aforesaid, so approved of as aforesaid, should have been duly executed, and the Powers and Authorities by the said Act given to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings were so given as to take effect (except as to the said Bridge, which the said Commissioners were authorized to commence forthwith) only when and so soon as such Agreements for Contribution as aforesaid (including a certain Agreement with the Governor and Company of Chelsea Waterworks therein referred to) should have been made and entered into, but not sooner: And whereas under and by virtue of the Provisions of the Forty-second Chapter of the Statutes made in the Session of Parliament held in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her said Majesty, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings are now substituted for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, for the Purposes of the said recited Act: And whereas the intended Bridge authorized by the said first-recited Act hath been commenced and is now in course of Construction: And whereas by the Seventy-first Chapter of the Statutes made in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her said Majesty, the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public

'Buildings were empowered to proceed with the Construction of the Eastern Division of the said 'intended Embankment and Roadway, notwithstanding that the said Agreements mentioned in the said 'first-recited Act had not then been entered into; but no Proceedings have been yet taken under the 'last-recited Act: And whereas the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings 'have made certain Alterations in the original Plans and Designs of the said proposed Embankment and 'Roadway, and it is expedient that the said Commissioners should now be authorized to proceed with 'and complete the whole of the said proposed Embankment and Roadway and new Street, and for that 'Purpose it is necessary that the Time limited by the said first-recited Act should be extended, and that 'the Powers by the said first-recited Act conferred with reference to the said original Plans and Designs, 'and to the Houses and Buildings, Lands and Hereditaments, comprised in the Schedule to the said 'first-recited Act, should be extended to the said amended Plans and Designs, and to the Houses and 'Buildings, Lands, and Hereditaments comprised in the Schedule to this Act annexed:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Commissioners to complete Embankment and Roadway according to the amended Plans.

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, subject as after mentioned, to construct and complete an Embankment and Roadway along the North Bank of the River Thames from Battersea Bridge to Vauxhall Bridge, or any Part or Parts of such Embankment and Roadway, according to the said amended Plans and Designs, and also to complete such new Street as in the said first-recited Act is mentioned.

Powers of recited Acts extended to this Act.

II. For the Purposes of this Act all the Enactments of the said recited Acts, except so far as the same are varied by or inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, shall be considered as herein repeated, with the Substitution of the said amended Plans and Designs for the Plans and Designs mentioned in the said first-recited Act, and of the Schedule annexed to this Act for the Schedule annexed to the said first-recited Act, and of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings: Provided nevertheless, that if the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings shall not, within the Space of Four Years, to commence and be computed from the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, purchase and take the Tenements and Hereditaments or Parts thereof respectively which they are by this Act, by Reference as aforesaid, empowered to take, use, and purchase, then the compulsory Powers for such Purpose shall cease.

If Property not purchased within Four Years the compulsory Powers to cease.

A Portion of the Embankment near Battersea Bridge may be constructed on the Foreshore of the River, with Consent of Crown and Corporation.

III. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, with the Consent of Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, and of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, to construct the said Embankment and Roadway on certain Portions of the Bed and Shore of the River Thames, between Cadogan Pier and Battersea Bridge, beyond the Limits of Deviation on the said deposited Plans: Provided always, that the Embankment and Roadway so constructed beyond the said Limits of Deviation shall not project, encroach upon, or interfere with the Bed and Shore of the said River to a greater Distance in any Part thereof than Thirty-five Feet from the said Limits of Deviation as shown on the said Plans.

Agreements for Contribution towards the Cost of Construction of the Embankment and Roadway may be entered into.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings to enter into Agreements with the Governors and Company of Chelsea Waterworks, and any of the Owners or Parties interested in the Tenements situated on the River Frontage, along which the said intended Embankment and Roadway are to pass, whereby the said Governors and Company and such Owners and Parties as aforesaid respectively shall agree to contribute towards the Cost of the Construction of the said Embankment and Roadway, either in Money or by conveying the Land required free of Expense, or by constructing the same Embankment and Roadway or Parts thereof at Prime Cost.

Embankment not to be commenced until Agreements are entered into.

V. No Part of the said Embankment and Roadway, except such Portion thereof as the said Commissioners are empowered to construct under the Authority of the lastly herein-before recited Act shall be commenced until such Agreements shall have been so entered into with such Parties as aforesaid as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think proper and necessary.

Unless Agreements are entered into before July 1, 1854, no Part of the Embankment to be made, and the Powers for its Construction to cease.

VI. Unless such Agreements for the Purposes aforesaid shall have been entered into to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury on or before the First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, then no Part of the said Embankment and Roadway other than such Portion thereof as the said Commissioners are empowered to construct under the Authority of the lastly herein-before recited Act shall be made, and the Powers by this Act given for the Construction of the same, and any such Agreements as may in the meantime have been entered into with the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings for Contribution towards the Cost of the Construction of the said Embankment and Roadway other than such Portion thereof as the said Commissioners are empowered to construct under the Authority of the lastly herein-before recited Act, shall cease and be void as from the said First Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four; but nothing herein-before contained shall prejudice or lessen the Powers of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings contained in this Act or the said recited Acts to construct such Portion of the said Embankment and Roadway as they are authorized to do by the lastly herein-before recited Act, or to construct such Street and Bridge as aforesaid, according to the Terms and Provisions of this Act or the said recited Acts, or either of them.

Persons desirous of keeping to let for Hire a greater Number of Horses or Carriages than specified in Licence may take out a supplemental Licence.

XIII. Provided always, That if any Person to whom any Licence to let Horses for Hire shall have been granted under this Act shall be desirous during the Existence of such Licence of keeping to let for Hire any greater Number of Horses or Carriages than such Licence shall authorize him to keep for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for him to apply for and require to be granted to him a supplemental Licence to authorize him to keep and let for Hire such additional Number of Horses or Carriages, or both, as shall be specified in the Requisition to be signed by him in that Behalf, and such supplemental Licence shall be granted accordingly on Payment of such Sum for the Duty thereon as would be payable by a Person then beginning the Business of letting Horses for Hire for a Licence to keep and let for Hire the Number of Horses and Carriages respectively specified in such supplemental Licence for the Remainder of the current Year ending on the Fifth Day of April next following.

CAP. XCVIII.

An Act for the further Relief of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery. [20th August 1853.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to make further Provision for the Relief of the Suitors of the High 'Court of Chancery:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Funds, the Dividends of which have not been received for Fifteen Years, may be transferred to Suitors Fee Fund Account.

I. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, at such Time within Nine Calendar Months after the passing of this Act as shall appear to him to be most convenient, to cause an Investigation to be made into the several Accounts standing in the Name of the said Accountant General to the Credit of any Cause or Matter the Dividends of which shall not have been dealt with for Fifteen Years or upwards prior to such Time, and if and when he shall be of opinion that it is not probable that any Claim will be made for the same, to make Orders for the Appropriation of the future Dividends to accrue due on such Stock, or such Part of such Dividends as he shall be of opinion may safely and properly be so appropriated, as the same shall accrue, for the Benefit of the Suitors of the said Court, and for the carrying the same over to the Credit of an Account to be entitled "The Suitors Unclaimed Dividend Account," and for the carrying from Time to Time such Part of the Cash standing to the last-mentioned Account as he may think fit over to the Credit of the Account in the Books of the said Accountant General called "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," and such Dividends when so carried over shall thereupon become Part of the Fund standing to such Account.

Rights of Suitors to Stock or Dividends transferred not to be affected, but to be satisfied out of the Suitors Fee Fund.

II. The Right of any Suitor of the said Court to the Stock the Dividends of which shall be appropriated by any such Order or Orders as aforesaid, or to the Dividends so directed to be appropriated, shall not be in anywise prejudiced or affected by such Order or Orders, or by such Appropriation in pursuance thereof as aforesaid, but the Claims of such Suitor or Suitors shall be made good and satisfied out of the Fund standing to the Credit of the Accounts called "The Suitors Fee Fund Account," and "The Suitors Unclaimed Dividend Account," or either of them, by virtue of any Order or Orders to be from Time to Time made by the said Court for that Purpose; and if and when it shall become necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, by any Order or Orders to be from Time to Time made for that Purpose, to impose such Fees in relation to Proceedings in the said Court of Chancery as to him shall seem meet, and to direct that such Fees shall be collected by means of Stamps, to be provided and used in the Manner now adopted with reference to Fees collected by means of Stamps in the said Court, and to alter, diminish, or abolish such new or additional Fees, as Circumstances may from Time to Time warrant him in so doing.

Periodical Investigations and Transfers to be made of Accounts the Dividends of which have not been received for Fifteen Years.

III. At the Expiration of every Five Years from such First Investigation as aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to cause a similar Investigation to be made into the several Accounts standing in the Name of the said Accountant General to the Credit of any Cause or Matter the Dividends of which shall not have been received for Fifteen Years or upwards prior to such Time, and thereupon the same Course shall be pursued in every respect with respect to such Accounts as is herein-before directed with respect to the Investigation so to be made within Nine Calendar Months after the passing of this Act; and the Provisions herein-before contained saving the Rights of the Suitor to any Dividends which may have been appropriated upon or in consequence of such Investigation, and giving Power to the Lord Chancellor to impose, alter, diminish, or abolish Fees in consequence thereof, shall extend and be applicable to every successive Investigation so to be made as aforesaid.

Dividends, &c. issued from Monies placed out to provide for Chancery Officers to be transferred to Suitors Fee Fund.
